Interpretation and Jurisprudence in Medieval Islam Norman Calder, Jawid Mojaddedi, 2022-02-13 At the time of his death in 1998 at the age of 47 Norman Calder had become the most widely discussed scholar in his field This was largely focused on his monograph Studies in Early Muslim Jurisprudence Oxford 1993 which boldly challenged existing theories about the origins of Islamic Law The present volume of twenty one of his articles and book chapters represents the full richness and diversity of Calder s oeuvre from his initial doctoral research on Shii Islam to his later more philosophical writings on Sunni hermeneutics in addition to his numerous studies on early Islamic history and jurisprudence Calder s pioneering research which was based on a sensitive reading of medieval texts fully informed by contemporary critical theory often challenged the established assumptions of the day He is known in particular for urging a reassessment of widely held prejudices which underestimated the degree of creativity in medieval Islamic scholarship Many of the articles in this volume have already become classics for the fields of Muslim jurisprudence and hermeneutics
