lessons from 15 stories Jesus told

minimalist, low-ink version

the prodigal son

Luke 15:11-32

Jesus tells the story of a younger son who demands his share of his father's wealth, leaves home, and squanders everything he inherits during "30 years he wasted his money in reckless living." When he returns home, he finds his father rejoicing, expecting forgiveness for his father's unconditional love with open arms. Meanwhile, the older brother resents his father's generosity, especially as the first's forgiveness is generous, unconditional, and often based on his brother's return to his father's house. This parable challenges us to reflect on how we show grace—both when we need to be merciful and when we're asked to extend it to others.

main characters & attributes

1. The Father - Unbiased, he can without favoritism show unconditional love, and already he offers you that love in an unending performance.
2. The Younger Son - selfish, entitled, free, impulsive, and clearly he craves more attention, validation, or recognition because his position in the world has gone.
3. The Older Son - He is proud about his accomplishments. He feels he deserves love through his works and the acknowledgment that he is a competent worker in a father's household.

context:

Jesus' Parable To his disciples and members of the church who were coming to the city of Capernaum, Jesus said: "The kingdom of God is like this: It is like a man who had two sons."	Background Jesus was being judged for allowing tax collectors and sinners to eat with them. He was being accused of "eating and drinking with sinners."	Context He wanted to show that God's love is the forgiveness that we need. He was saying that we should not be proud of our works.

God's love and forgiveness are unconditional. He desires that you are always happy and healthy. He is willing to back with open arms when you return to him.	Be thankful for anything you are trying to do. Don't think you're better than God. Don't be proud of your works. Don't think you're better than God. Don't be proud of your works.	key lesson When someone is proud of their works, they are not truly happy. They are not truly happy.

if I were in this story:
 How do you think you would feel if you were the younger son? How do you think you would feel if you were the older son? How do you think you would feel if you were the father?

4- deeper meanings: The father's unconditional love is the love that we need. The father's unconditional love is the love that we need. The father's unconditional love is the love that we need.

does this apply to my life?

How do you think you would feel if you were the younger son? How do you think you would feel if you were the older son? How do you think you would feel if you were the father?	How do you think you would feel if you were the younger son? How do you think you would feel if you were the older son? How do you think you would feel if you were the father?

favorite verse from the parable

Jesus said: "The kingdom of God is like this: It is like a man who had two sons." (Luke 15:11)

my prayer for today:

God, I thank you for your love and forgiveness. I thank you for your love and forgiveness. I thank you for your love and forgiveness. I thank you for your love and forgiveness.
