continually recognized and promoted in powwows and dances Why is there conflict in one sphere of Cheyenne Arapaho politics and cooperation in the other The key to the dynamics of current community life Fowler contends is found in the complicated relationship between the colonizer and the colonized that emerges in Fourth World or postcolonial settings For over a century the lives of Cheyennes and Arapahos have been affected simultaneously by forces of resistance and domination These circumstances are reflected in their constructions of history Cheyennes and Arapahos accommodate an ideology that buttresses social forms of domination and helps mold experiences and perceptions They also selectively recognize and resist such domination Drawing upon a decade of fieldwork and archival research Tribal Sovereignty and the Historical Imagination provides an insightful and provocative analysis of how Cheyenne and Arapaho constructions of history influence tribal politics today Encyclopedia of American Indian Literature Jennifer McClinton-Temple, Alan Velie, 2010-05-12 American Indians have produced some of the most powerful and lyrical literature ever written in North America Encyclopedia of American Indian Literature covers the field from the earliest recorded works to some of today's most exciting writers This encyclopedia features the most respected widely read and influential American Indian writers to date publisher description The Grass Dancer[pbk] Susan Power, 1995 Spirits of the 1860s Ghost Horse and Red Dress seek to be reunited through an Indian couple of the 1980s The Socialness of Things Stephen H. Master Narratives and Volume Three Reconceiving Identities in Political Economy it gathers thinkers from across world regions and disciplines who reconfigure critical global thought Collaboratively conceived the volumes are founded on the observation that we cannot fully uproot the epistemological material violence of coercive systems nor fully re imagine more ethical visions of planetary community without shared attention to the deeper histories of place and peoples that shape the present Accordingly the volumes gather social scientists and humanists Indigenous and non Indigenous scholars and intersectional and materialist thinkers who reconceptualize longue dur e history and its afterlives They engage in the dual project to dismantle eurocentric colonial androcentric frameworks and to make visible the legacies of care and creative world making that have sustained human communities Uncovering pasts that are as complex and dynamic as the present the contributors brilliantly transform notions of temporality relationability polity conjuncture resistance and experimentation within histories of struggle and alliance They richly decolonize political imaginaries The co editors introductions articulate fresh frameworks of deep place and deep time freed from eurocentric modernity paradigms indicating pathways toward decolonial collaboration and institutional change Decolonial Reconstellations offers invaluable resources for researchers and teachers in decolonial postcolonial anti colonial and Indigenous studies and will also strongly appeal to feminist anti racist Marxist and critical theory scholars across disciplines
