The Immigrant's Experience, 1967 The Jewish Immigrant Experience in Anzia Yezierska's Bread Givers and Mary Antin's The Promised Land Birgit Wieking, 2006-12-18 Thesis M A from the year 2006 in the subject American Studies Literature grade 1 7 University of Hannover American Studies language English abstract I was born I have lived and I have been made over Is it not time to write my life's story It is because I understand my history in its larger outlines to be typical of many that I consider it worth recording My life is a concrete illustration of a multitude of statistical facts I am only one of many whose fate it has been to live a page of modern history We are the strands of the cable that binds the Old World to the New Antin PL13 5 2 I suddenly realized that I had come back to where I had started twenty years ago when I began my fight for freedom And now I realized that the shadow of the burden was always following me and here I stood face to face with it again But I felt the shadow still there over me It wasn't just my father but the generations who made my father whose weight was still upon me Yezierska BG295 7 3 These are two quotations by two immigrant women both experiencing an incisive and complete change in their young lives through the immigration from Eastern Europe to the United States of America at the end of the nineteenth century This thesis investigates their individual immigrant experience that they claim to be representative of the lives of many Immigration has always exerted a great influence on American life Towards the turn to the 20th century the United States was confronted with the largest stage of immigration in the nation's history From 1890 on a total of twenty million people entered the country until the 1920s cf Di Pietro Ifkovic 6 Immigrants at the time were mainly from Southern and Eastern Europe the largest groups were formed by Italians Hebrews Polish Germans and English cf Gabbacia 140 On the one hand the rapidly developing economic expansion 139 in the US required human labor on the other hand life in Europe was determined by famine and epidemics as well as political and religious persecution to outline briefly the most important reasons for this big wave of migration The conflict between the immigrants' expectations of a better life in the New World and the actual living conditions as well as the political climate the immigrants had to face in the United States has been treated in literature in many ways The examination of cultural or ethnic identity and the process of assimilation in this case Americanization and its effects are very important issues in immigration literature as well New Strangers in Paradise Gilbert H. Muller, 2021-10-21 New Strangers in Paradise offers the first in depth account of the ways in which contemporary American fiction has been shaped by the successive generations of immigrants to reach U S shores Gilbert Muller reveals how the intersections of peoples' regions and competing cultural histories have remade the American cultural landscape in the aftermath of World War II Muller focuses on the literature of Holocaust survivors Chicanos Latinos African Caribbeans and Asian Americans In the quest for a new identity each of these groups seeks the American dream and rewrites the story of what it means to be an American New Strangers in Paradise explores the psychology of uprooted peoples and the relations of culture and power addressing issues of race and ethnicity multiculturalism and pluralism and national and international conflicts Examining the groups of immigrants in the cultural and historical context both of America and of the lands from which they originated Muller argues that this fourth wave of immigration has led to a creative flowering in modern fiction The book offers a fresh perspective on the writings of Vladimir Nabokov Saul Bellow William Styron Maxine Hong Kingston Amy Tan Oscar Hijuelos Jamaica Kincaid Bharati Mukherjee Rudolfo Anaya and many others
