, Exiles, Travellers and Vagabonds ,2016-10-20 Travel writing migrant writing exile writing expatriate writing and even the fictional travelling protagonists that emerge in literary works from around the globe have historically tended to depict mobility as a masculine phenomenon The presence of such genres in women s writing however poses a rich and unique body of work This volume examines the texts of Francophone women who have experienced or reflected upon the experience of transnational movement Due to the particularity of their relationship to home and the consequent impact of this on their experience of displacement the study of women s mobility opens up new questions in our understanding of the movement from place to place and in our broader understanding of colonial and postcolonial worlds Addressing the proximities and overlaps that exist between the experiences of women exiles migrants expatriates and travellers the collected essays in this book seek to challenge the usefulness relevance or validity of such terms for conceptualising today s complex patterns of transnational mobility and the gendered identities produced therein Nietzsche - Philosophie de la légèreté

Olivier Ponton,2008-08-27 Nietzsche s philosophy is a philosophy of lightness a lightness which doesn t consist in breaking with gravity but in controlling it being light is being able to take charge of life ie bearing and loving it wanting it This book is first devoted to Greek lightness for Nietzsche finds in Ancient Greece the pattern for an alleviation which enables to unload one s drives without denying oneself The study of Greek culture is thus the starting point of a close analysis of the human all too human things ie an inquiry whose orientation is definitely antimetaphysical ie antiplatonic antisopenhauerian and antiwagnerian Nietzsche first shows that alleviation in religion has a double face on the one hand religion makes man s heart heavy with sinfulness on the other hand it lightens it with the fiction of a merciful God True alleviation thus consists in freeing oneself from religious lightening and proclaiming the radical innocence of everything Nietzsche also criticizes alleviation in art ie a romantic alleviation He shows that like alleviation in religion it requires a previous heaviness Therefore he praises a classical art and an aesthetic of lightness Nietzsche eventually focuses on a philosophical alleviation of life defined as a freeing of spirit Such a definition leads him to develop the doctrine of the closest things which consist of the organization of a dietary alleviation of life French Literature During the Last Half-century Pierre Daretière de
