Sylvanus Now:

Sylvanus Now Donna Morrissey, 2006-04-17 Breathtakingly beautiful Alistair MacLeod On the coast of the great 1950s Newfoundland fishing banks Sylvanus Now is a rugged fisherman who treasures the traditions of his small village and his time alone with the vast sea But when he sees Adelaide a fiery proud beauty from a neighboring outport he is mesmerized and steadily pursues her Adelaide dreams of escaping across the seas and becoming a missionary but she is more eager to escape her squealing young brothers and sisters She soon marries Sylvanus and the mismatched couple is forced to face one of the great environmental catastrophes of our time the collapse of the largest fishing grounds on earth Through this story of love loss and transformation in a dissolving community Donna Morrissey plumbs the depths of authentic relationships and breathes potent life into the ravaged Newfoundland landscape

Anne of Tim Hortons Herb Wyile, 2011-04-25 Anne of Tim Hortons Globalization and the Reshaping of Atlantic Canadian Literature is a study of the work of over twenty contemporary Atlantic Canadian writers that counters the widespread impression of Atlantic Canada as a quaint and backward place By examining their treatment of work culture and history author Herb Wyile highlights how these writers resist the image of Atlantic Canadians as improvident and regressive if charming folk After an introduction that examines the current place of the region within the Canadian federation and the broader context of economic globalization Anne of Tim Hortons explores how Atlantic Canadian writers present a picture of the region that is much more complex and less quaint than the stereotypes through which it is typically viewed Through the works of authors such as Michael Winter Lisa Moore George Elliott Clarke Rita Joe Frank Barry Alistair MacLeod and Bernice Morgan among others the book looks at the changing and increasingly corporate nature of work the cultural diversification and subversive self consciousness of Atlantic Canadian literature and Atlantic Canadian writers often revisionist approach to the region s history What these writers are engaged in the book contends is a kind of collective readjustment of the image of the region Rather than a marginal place stranded outside of time Atlantic Canada in these works is very much caught up in contemporary economic political and cultural developments particularly the broad sweep of economic globalization

The Critic Jeannette Leonard Gilder, Joseph Benson Gilder, 1889 The World-Literary System and the Atlantic Sorcha Gunne, Neil Lazarus, 2020-12-30 The World Literary System and the Atlantic grapples with key questions about how American studies and the Atlantic region in general engages with new considerations of literary comparativism international literary space and the world literary system The edited collection furthers these discussions by placing them into a relationship with the theory of combined and uneven development a theory that has a long pedigree in Marxist sociology and political economy and that continues to stimulate debate across the social sciences but whose implications for culture have received less attention Drawing on the comparative modes concepts and methods being developed in the new world literary studies the essays cover a diverse range of topics such as the periodization of world literature racism and the world system singular modernity critical realism commodity
