birthplace of Mahatma Gandhi and the land that produced Mohammad Ali Jinnah the founder of Pakistan Gujarat has been at the centre stage of South Asia's political iconography for more than a century. As Gujarat created as a separate state in 1960 celebrates its golden jubilee, this collection of essays critically explores the many paradoxes and complexities of modernity and politics in the state. The contributors provide much needed insights into the dominant impulses of identity formation, cultural change, political mobilisation, religious movements and modes of communication that define modern Gujarat. This book touches upon a fascinating range of topics: the identity debates at the heart of the idea of modern Gujarat; the trajectory of Gujarati politics from the 1950s to the present day; bootlegging, the practice of corruption and public power; vegetarianism and violence; urban planning and the enabling infrastructure of antagonism; global diasporas and provincial politics providing new insights into understanding the enigma of Gujarat. Going well beyond the boundaries of Gujarat and engaging with larger questions about democracy and diversity in India, this book will appeal to those interested in South Asian Studies, politics, sociology, history, as well as the general reader. This book was published as a special issue of South Asian History and Culture.

The Voter, 1910      Pennsylvania, a State of Corruption Stephen Worob, 2009 In 1992 I volunteered my services at the Morrisville School board to make my small town a better place. Thirteen years later I was persecuted by a powerful and evil justice system that inflicted unbearable heartache that stole my family's future for honoring my oath. My crime was that I passionately stood up and spoke out against corruption and refused to be silenced. As my wife battled for her life with cancer, Pennsylvania's vindictive system of justice caused our family to be dragged for more than two years through a frivolous lawsuit and misguided judgment that tore my family apart. I wrote this book to inform people that law enforcement is selective and our court system is being used to protect corruption while our watchdogs are under siege. Worst of all, our so-called servants of the public control the media and will crush anyone who stands in their way.      Official Report of the Proceedings and Debates of the Third Constitutional Convention of Ohio, Ohio.
