Germany's Fighting Machine: Her Army, her Navy, her Airships and Why She Arrayed Them Against the Allied Powers of Europe Ernest Flagg Henderson,2020-09-28 When a great and extraordinary event takes place it is easy somewhere in the world to point to omens and prophecies that have heralded it But in the case of the present war we can see in the German newspapers how from month to month of the present year the struggle was felt to be more and more imminent and how Russia the power that eventually precipitated the catastrophe was felt to be the center of real danger In well informed diplomatic circles writes the Magdeburger Zeitung in January 1914 the impression can not be concealed that in Russia at present there prevails a thoroughly hostile attitude to Germany and Austria Hungary and that the agitation in the czar s realm is greater even than during the last Balkan crisis It looks as though Russia were preparing to make an extraordinarily great show of strength against a specific not far distant date And the Deutsche Tageszeitung What is Russia s purpose in building a mighty fleet of dreadnaughts for the Baltic Surely not merely to coerce Sweden Again the Madgeburg paper The Russian government which already owes French capitalists twelve billions has received a new loan of two billions five hundred millions of which five million are yearly to be issued in Paris This whole gigantic sum is exclusively to be spent for building strategic railways along the German Russian boundary France compelled Russia to do this The French general staff thinks that Russia because of her clumsiness in mobilizing but especially for lack of tracks leading to the German frontier will not be able in a new war with Germany to bring help to France in time Russia has now fulfilled France s wishes in this regard Thus does the Franco Russian alliance which of late seemed to be falling into oblivion celebrate its resurrection In February the Hallesche Zeitung writes To keep friendship with Russia is one of the chief aims of our foreign policy but it is sometimes made very hard for us indeed They keep the peace because it is to the advantage of the czar s empire to do so but they are to be had for every combination directed against Germany And the Dresdener Nachrichten The Russian German relations leave very much to be desired at the moment The Russian government fails to show the least approachableness in foreign questions and Russian society and the press are in an extremely anti German mood Evidences of the same thing are to be seen in their attitude to Austria The Russian policy lets itself be taken more and more in tow by the French desires and has nothing but polite speeches left for Germany The Weser Zeitung finds the explanation of the hostility in Germany s efforts to help the Turks reorganize their army and declares Here we have touched one of the weakest spots in Russia s world policy her endeavor to get to the Mediterranean The Fr nkische Kurier thinks that Russia intends to form a protectorate over the Balkan states as a military weapon against Austria and her allies The soul of this endeavor is the Russian diplomacy and the Servian minister president Pasitsch The Dresdener Anzeiger observes that the influence of the Pan Slavist party over the Russian government is steadily growing and that the extraordinary activity in military matters ill suits the constant peace assurances The measures are pointed against Austria Hungary Germany's Fighting Machine Ernest Flagg Henderson,2016-05-16 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant The World's Work ,1920 Fighting Machines Dan Saxon,2021-12-03 This book addresses the relationship between lethal autonomous weapon systems human dignity and international law Its central thesis is that the delegation of human responsibility for moral judgments to lethal autonomous weapon systems erodes human dignity and consequently international law Germany's Fighting Machine Ernest F. 1861-1928 Henderson,2016-05-08 This work
