The New Exploring World History:

Exploring World History Sol Holt,1990 A textbook history of the world from earliest times to today The New Exploring World History Sol Holt,John Richard O'Connor,1977 Exploring World History Globe Fearon,Sol Holt,1994 A textbook history of the world from earliest times to today Exploring World History Sol Holt,John Richard O'Connor,1987 A textbook history of the world from earliest times to today Exploring World History through Geography Julie Crea Dunbar,2022-09-29 Not your run of the mill world history tome this book takes readers on a fascinating journey through time to examine world history through the closely related discipline of geography New Exploring World History Shing-kit Cheung,Chi-yee Cheung,Wai-kin Ho,2014 Africa in Social Studies Textbooks Astair Zekiros,1978 New Exploring World History: Theme B: Conflicts and co-operation in the 20th-century world Shing-kit Cheung,2009 Exploring World History Mark Williams,Lou Ratté,Robert K. Andrian,2001 Exploring World History presents new subject matter new perspectives and new classroom strategies for helping teachers transform their courses into intellectual adventures

Multiculturalism, Chinese Identity, and Education Jason Cong Lin,2022-11-02 In Chinese societies Chinese identity is an important yet controversial topic This book examines official understandings of Chinese identity in Mainland China and Hong Kong exploring how the latest governments of Mainland China and Hong Kong conceptualize Chinese identity how government endorsed textbooks frame it in different subjects and how a multicultural approach can enhance understanding of identity in both societies Using content analysis to support his theoretical arguments Lin offers an in depth updated and detailed picture of how the governments of Mainland China and Hong Kong and their endorsed textbooks encourage people in these societies to respond to the question of who are we He also elaborates on how the current approach to understanding Chinese identity can be harmful and examines how a multicultural approach could better fit these Chinese contexts and enhance understanding of who are we Given that the question of identity causes trouble everywhere and many countries are debating approaches to understanding diverse identities in their own societies this book provides valuable insights into the Chinese perspective to allow readers to more fully understand global frameworks of identity This book will interest researchers and students in the fields of multiculturalism multicultural education national identity identity politics and China and Hong Kong studies Imagining Japan in Post-war East Asia Paul Morris,Naoko Shimazu,Edward Vickers,2014-03-26 In the decades since her defeat in the Second World War Japan has continued to loom large in the national imagination of many of her East Asian neighbours While for many Japan still conjures up images of rampant military brutality at different times and in different communities alternative images of the Japanese Other have vied for predominance in ways that remain poorly understood not least within Japan itself Imagining Japan in Postwar East Asia analyses the portrayal of Japan in the societies of East and Southeast Asia and asks how and why this has changed in recent decades and what these changing images of Japan reveal about the ways in which these societies construct their own identities It examines the role played by an imagined Japan in the construction of national selves across the East Asian region as mediated through a broad range of media ranging from school curricula and textbooks to film television literature and comics Commencing with an extensive thematic and comparative overview chapter the volume also includes contributions focusing specifically on Chinese societies the mainland PRC Hong Kong and Taiwan Korea the Philippines Malaysia and Singapore These studies show how changes in the representation of Japan have been related to political social and cultural shifts within the societies of East Asia and in particular to the ways in which these societies have imagined or constructed their own identities Bringing together contributors working in the fields of education anthropology history sociology political science and media studies this interdisciplinary volume will be of interest to all students and scholars concerned with issues of identity politics and culture in the societies of East Asia and to those seeking a deeper understanding of Japan's fraught relations with its regional neighbours

Contesting Education and Identity in Hong Kong Liz Jackson, 2020-12-29 This text examines the intersection of youth civic engagement identity and protest in Hong Kong through the lens of education It explores how education and identity have been contested in Hong Kong historically and today and the mark that such contestations have left on education Many people particularly outside Hong Kong were astonished by youth participation in the Umbrella Movement of 2013 2014 and the anti extradition law protests in 2019 These protests have caused people to consider what has changed in Hong Kong over time and what education has to do with youth civic engagement and political expression This book provides an academic theoretically oriented perspective on the intersection of youth identity and education in Hong Kong Coming from an educational and philosophical orientation Jackson focuses on areas where greater understanding and greater potential agreement might be developed when it comes to education This book will be of interest to educational policy makers curriculum specialists and educational scholars and students in liberal studies social studies civic education comparative and international education multicultural education and youth studies

History in the Schools Matthew T. Downey, 1985 This examination of the condition of history instruction in the public schools offers chapters on four major areas of concern to educators 1 the status of history in the schools 2 problem areas in the history curriculum 3 students methods and instructional materials and 4 preparation and certification of history teachers In the first chapter Matthew T Downey reviews the status of history in the curriculum as it has evolved over the years and concludes that although history remains a dominant subject in the social studies curriculum patterns of enrollment and course offerings change from time to time In Chapter 2 Douglas D Alder and Matthew T Downey discuss major challenges facing those concerned with history in the schools especially the importance of restoring world history to its former place in the high school curriculum and U S history to the junior high curriculum In chapter 3 Hazel W Hertzberg recommends that future improvement in the teaching of history will be based on strengthening the link between purpose content method and materials of instruction with each other and with the developmental needs and capacities of students

The chapter then discusses aspects of examining change through time characteristics of historical inquiry research on adolescent conceptualization of historical time the value of active participatory learning and the need for better materials In the final chapter Clair W Keller presents recommendations for teacher preparation certification inservice education and master s degree requirements LH Coverage of the Arab World in American Secondary School World Studies Textbooks Michel Georges Nabti,1981 The World's History Illuminated Israel Smith Clare,1897 Library of World History,1914 World History To-day Albert Edward McKinley,Arthur Charles Howland,Matthew Lincoln Dann,1927 The World's History and Its Makers: American history ,1902 The World's History at a Glance, from 800 B.C. to 1913 A.D. Edward Joseph O'Brien,1913
