Parker,2014-03-14 This book is a children s book written for young readers who enjoy reading for themselves or may need a parent or grandparent to read it for them This is a story of the birth of Jesus presented to the reader through the eyes of an old camel Papaw as he tells the story to his grand camels The book has true facts of a bright star three wise men a city called Bethlehem and the humble birth of a baby boy who was given the name Jesus It s presented to the reader through the use of fictional camel characters I have learned through my years of narrative storytelling that animals have the special ability to open the minds of children and animals are most like God in that they are created with the ability to love unconditionally The story can teach parents and grandparents how their children have many important attributes given to them from God It doesn t matter if they are different by oddity of size having a special talent others may think weird or a different skin color All is precious in the sight of God He makes no mistakes in His creation This story can remind us to look to the heavens at night and remember For God loved the world so much that He sent His only begotten son that whosoever believes in Him shall not perish but have everlasting life John 3 16 KJV Read your Bible in Matthew 1 18 25 KJV and Matthew 2 1 23 KJV to experience the true Biblical story
