Tangled Memories Marita Sturken, 1997-02-28 On American cultural memory Zapruder Øyvind Vågnes, 2012-08-24 Winner Peter C Rollins Book Award 2012 As the fiftieth anniversary of the Kennedy assassination approaches the traumatic aspects of the tragedy continue to haunt our perceptions of the 1960s One reason for this lies in the home movie of the incident filmed by Abraham Zapruder a bystander who became one of the twentieth century's most important accidental documentarians The first book devoted exclusively to the topic Zapruder traces the journey of the film and its effect on the world's collective imagination Providing insightful perspective as an observer of American culture Norwegian media studies scholar Øyvind Vågnes begins by analyzing three narratives that are projections of Zapruder's images performance group Ant Farm's video The Eternal Frame Don DeLillo's novel Underworld and an episode from Seinfeld Subsequent topics he investigates include Dealey Plaza's Sixth Floor Museum Zoran Naskovski's installation Death in Dallas assassin video games and other artifacts of the ways in which the footage has made a lasting impact on popular culture and the historical imagination Vågnes also explores the role of other accidental documentarians such as those who captured scenes of 9/11 Zapruder's footage has never yielded a conclusive account of what happened in Dealey Plaza Zapruder thoroughly examines both this historical enigma and its indelible afterimages in our collective imagination Trauma and the Memory of Politics Jenny Edkins, 2003-07-31 In this interesting study Jenny Edkins explores how we remember traumatic events such as wars famines genocides and terrorism and questions the assumed role of commemorations as simply reinforcing state and nationhood Taking examples from the World Wars Vietnam the Holocaust Kosovo and September 11th Edkins offers a thorough discussion of practices of memory such as memorials museums remembrance ceremonies the diagnosis of post-traumatic stress and the act of bearing witness She examines the implications of these commemorations in terms of language political power sovereignty and nationalism She argues that some forms of remembering do not ignore the horror of what happened but rather use memory to promote change and to challenge the political systems that produced the violence of wars and genocides in the first place This wide-ranging study embraces literature history politics and international relations and makes a significant contribution to the study of memory Filipino American Transnational Activism , 2019-12-09 Read an interview with Robyn Rodriguez Filipino American Transnational Activism Diasporic Politics among the Second Generation offers an account of how Filipinos born or raised in the United States often defy the multiple assimilationist agendas that attempt to shape their understandings of themselves Despite conditions that might lead them to reject any kind of relationship to the Philippines in favor of a deep rootedness in the United States many forge linkages to the homeland and are actively engaged in activism and social movements transnationally Though it may well be true that most Filipino Americans have an ambivalent relationship to the Philippines many of the chapters of this book show that other possibilities for belonging and imaginaries of home are being crafted and pursued The Song George Putnam Upton, 1915
