transformation are examined with respect to their roles in practitioners appropriation of the Buddhist worldview and their subsequent commitment to the path to enlightenment Religious commitment is experienced as a decision point itself the effect of the individual s experimental immersion in the Centre s activities During this time the claims of the Buddhist worldview are tested against personal experience and convictions Using rich ethnographic data and Lofland and Skonovd s experimental conversion motif as a model for theorizing the stages of involvement leading to commitment the author demonstrates that this study has a wider application to our understanding of the role of alternative religions in western contexts Philosophy East & West ,1988 Controversy Over Dharmakāya in Indo-Tibetan Buddhism John J.
