West New Guinea Debacle:

The West New Guinea Debacle C.L.M. Penders, 2021-10-01 This is a history which deals with the end of the Dutch colonial rule the early independent Indonesia the West New Guinea question and the emergence of Papuan nationalism The book chiefly concentrates on Dutch policies and perspectives which have so far generally been ignored in existing English language publications Netherlands Indonesian relations between 1950 and 1958 are treated in depth with a description and analysis of the struggle for power between the early more Western attuned and economic rationalist cabinets on the support of which the fate of the vast Netherlands controlled export economy was dependent and the masses driven by Sukarno and the populist parties West New Guinea and Papua nationalism began as early as the 1920s and 1930s and by the early 1950s the Dutch had set about guiding the Papuans towards independence This policy had to be aborted however with the threat of an Indonesian invasion and the unwillingness of the US to provide armed support to Dutch forces As a result Australia too was reluctantly forced to abandon the Dutch Australia was forced to accept the inevitable It had actively encouraged the Netherlands to hold onto West New Guinea completed agreements on economic and social cooperation and conducted in depth studies about a possible Australia Dutch defence system against Indonesian aggression Without US military support however the situation became untenable This book will be required for those seeking to understand the genesis of the situation in West New Guinea today where Papuan nationalism is again in the ascendant following the recent dramatic events leading to the independence of East Timor Co published with Crawford House Publishing The Dynamics of the Western New Guinea Problem Robert C. Bone, 2009 Considering its importance the dispute between Indonesia and the Netherlands over Western New Guinea Irian Barat has received little scholarly attention Highly tendentious treatment has characterized most writing concerning the issue and those who would seek a full and unvarnished account have been little instructed In so far as the press has been concerned with the problem its attention has been largely focused on U N debates and on current statements by the spokesmen of the countries involved Slight effort has been made either by journalists or by those who have professed a more scholarly approach to dig into the relevant historical background or to give any full account of the contemporary factors which shape this problem In what is the first major study of the dispute Dr Robert C Bone has to a remarkable degree offset these deficiencies His report is by far the most substantial and thorough yet to appear and it is the precursor to a considerably more comprehensive monograph on this subject to be printed in 1960 Having a substantial knowledge of the modern history and contemporary politics of Indonesia and the Netherlands with at least two years of residence in each of these countries and a command of both their languages and having devoted two years of sustained research to the problem of Western New Guinea he is perhaps uniquely qualified to write this study George McT Kahin About the Author Prior to embarking on an academic career Robert C Bone served as Political Officer in the American Embassy in The Hague from 1947 to 1949 and as Senior Political Officer in the American Embassy in Djakarta from 1951 to 1953 In 1954

he resigned from the Foreign Service and entered Cornell University as a fellow in its Southeast Asia Program From January through September 1956 he carried out research in the Netherlands under a fellowship from the Ford Foundation He received his Ph D degree from Cornell University in 1957 and has since then been Assistant Professor in the Department of Political Science at Tulane University     The West New Guinea Debacle Chris Penders,2002     Britain and the West New Guinea Dispute, 1949-1962 Nicholas Tarling,2008 This book considers British policy during the dispute over West Papua between Indonesia and the Netherlands following the collapse of the Suharto regime Although there are books and theses on American Australian and Dutch policies those of the British have remained unexplored The work looks at the factors that conditioned Britain s response to the unrest from accommodating its allies to navigating Cold War     The West New Guinea Dispute Justus Maria Van der Kroef,1958     West New Guinea William Henderson,American-Asian Educational Exchange,1973     Anthropologica ,2002 Includes reports of meetings of the institute     Sukarno's Guided Indonesia Tjin-kie Tan,1967     Pacific Affairs ,1980     Oceania Alfred Reginald Radcliffe-Brown,Raymond Firth,Adolphus Peter Elkin,2012     West Irian and Jakarta Imperialism Kees Lagerberg,1979 De geschiedenis van Irian Jaya van 1950 tot 1979     World Catalogue of Theses on the Pacific Islands Diane Dickson,Carol Dossor,1970     Permanent Mandates Commission League of Nations,1921     Monthly Trade & Shipping Review ,1961     Oriental Geographer ,1961     Bibliography of West New Guinea Klaas Wilhelm Galis,1956     The Trauma of Decolonization Arend Lijphart,1966     Monograph Series ,1961     The Origin and Development of the Irian Problem Robert C.
