What A Day:

What a Day... Marcus Pfister,2018-04-01 Raven is having a bad day Or at least he thinks he is until he bumps into a tree and his day gets a whole lot worse But maybe having a sore bandaged nose isn t so bad after all He sure gets a lot of extra attention from the other forest birds Maybe if he puts on more bandages he ll get more sympathy What about even more bandages What an ingenious idea It makes Raven feel simply wonderful Well at least until he finds himself in a sticky situation no amount of bandages will get him out of Follow Raven s calamities and triumphs in this wordless picture book and enhance or change the story with the reuseable peel off emoji stickers included in the book Wow, What a Day! Edgar Allen Moore,2012-08-01 On August 16 1938 in Kittanning Pennsylvania a tiny boy opened his mouth and cried for the first time As Germany persecuted Jews and Orson Wells prepared for his infamous War of the Worlds radio program Edgar Allen Moore began his life as the second of three boys in a Scottish Irish family who nurtured an insatiable curiosity and a zest for adventure In his entertaining memoir Moore chronicles his journey from childhood to adulthood as he experienced variability excitement and satisfaction while working in five different professions As Moore shares how he was influenced not only by the death of his mother at a young age but also by a post war cultural environment he details how he managed to become successful despite living with the effects of attention deficit disorder an then unknown affliction that would not be diagnosed until later in life As he narrates his adventures from college to military assignments to eventual employment Moore provides a compelling glimpse into what it is like to look at each sunrise as a new opportunity WOW What a Day shares one baby boomers narrative of what it was like to grow up amid the chaos of World War II and the subsequent years as he embarks on a journey of self discovery and embraces enriching life experiences What a Difference a Day Makes Steve Bergsman,2023-10-30 In What a Difference a Day Makes Women Who Conquered 1950s Music Steve Bergsman highlights the Black female artists of the 1950s a time that predated the chart topping girl groups of the early 1960s Many of the singers of this era became wildly famous and respected and even made it into the Rock n Roll Hall of Fame However there were many others such as Margie Day Helen Humes Nellie Lutcher Jewel King and Savannah Churchill who made one or two great records in the 1950s and then disappeared from the scene The era featured former jazz and blues singers who first came to prominence in the 1940s and others who pioneered early forms of rock n roll In a companion volume Bergsman has written the history of white women singers of the same era Although song styles were parallel the careers of Black and white female singers of the period ran in very different directions as the decade progressed The songs of African American vocalists like Dinah Washington and Etta James were segregated to the R B charts or covered by pop singers in the early and mid 1950s but burst into prominence in the last part of the decade and well into the 1960s White singers on the other hand excelled in the early 1950s but saw their careers decline with the advent of rock music In this volume Bergsman takes an encyclopedic look at both the renowned and the sadly faded stars of the 1950s placing them and their music back in the
