having her arrested for the murder It s not even the fact that the victim was a somewhat flaky pawnbroker who dabbled in the I Ching and believed in all the paranormal phenomena that C J s rational mind automatically rejects No the problem is that the ghost of the victim won t leave her alone C J can t explain it and isn t quite sure she believes it but the ghost of Budge Dirkwood has popped into her life and it seems the only way she can get rid of him is to help him solve his murder With his help she investigates all the possible suspects ranging from teen aged gang members to the rich and powerful members of Highland Park society checking out some wife beaters and Elvis impersonators in between Will she find the killer and succeed in getting this ghost out of her life Or will she be stuck with the ghost of a pawnbroker for the rest of her life
