O. Choules, 2018-07-03 Young Americans Abroad Vacation in Europe by J O Choules I have just arrived at this place and have found my companions on hand all ready for the commencement of the long anticipated voyage We regret the circumstances which render it your duty to remain and we all feel very sorry for the disappointment of your wishes and our hopes You will however feel happy in the thought that you are clearly in the path of duty and you have already learnt that that path is a safe one and that it always leads to happiness You have begged us all to write to you as frequently as we can and we have concluded to send you our joint contributions drawing largely upon our journals as we move from place to place and as we have for so many years had pleasant intercourse in the family circle we wish to maintain it by correspondence abroad Our letters will of course be very different in their character and interest because you will bear in mind that our ages are different and we shall write you from a variety of points some having a deeper interest than others I trust that this series of letters will give you a general view of our movements and contribute to your gratification if not to your instruction The weather is delightful and we are anticipating a fine day for leaving port It is to all of us a source of pain that we are deprived of your sunny smile and while we are wandering far away in other lands we shall often in fancy listen to your merry laugh and I assure you my dear fellow that wherever we rove it will be amongst our pleasantest thoughts of home when we anticipate the renewal of personal intercourse with one who has secured so warm a place in our affections We are delighted to publish this classic book as part of our extensive Classic Library collection Many of the books in our collection have been out of print for decades and therefore have not been accessible to the general public The aim of our publishing program is to facilitate rapid access to this vast reservoir of literature and our view is that this is a significant literary work which deserves to be brought back into print after many decades The contents of the vast majority of titles in the Classic Library have been scanned from the original works To ensure a high quality product each title has been meticulously hand curated by our staff Our philosophy has been guided by a desire to provide the reader with a book that is as close as possible to ownership of the original work We hope that you will enjoy this wonderful classic work and that for you it becomes an enriching experience

Young Americans Abroad Edward Everett Hale, 2018-01-19 Excerpt from Young Americans Abroad Being a Family Flight by Four Young People and Their Parents Through France and Germany In Jacob Abbott's travelling directions the instructions for finding a lost boy are these Look for him where the monkeys are These directions Phil remembered But there were no monkeys within a mile of the pier Phil thought Of the steerage passengers He ran down the pier to the place where they were buying their tin mugs and the rest of their outfit For if you be a child of the public and travel in the steerage Europe requires none of the long preparations which luxury exacts If you are so fortunate as to travel as the masses do you say at eleven o'clock I think I will go across and see the Old folks I You take an Eight Avenue car up town for five cents you run to the ticket Office on the pier as if it were the ferry to Jersey City and you buy your ticket there There is a woman handy at a bench who will sell you a tin mug a towel if you need a basin if you are particular and a brush and comb if you are luxurious and having bought these you go on board AS you cross the gangway the man in charge cries All ashore The landsmen leave the ship and you cross the ocean and see your father For the Homers alas because they were more luxurious more preparation had been necessary and so it was that they had lost Tom and that Phil was in search of him But Phil s first dive for Tom was wrong He was not buying a tin cup nor a wash basin Here s your nice oranges seven for a Shilling said a stout woman holding an orange in one hand and opening a paper box with another Phil did not lose his temper but asked if a little boy had bought oranges Not a boy had been near the place Phil looked for an Officer Nobody but the uniformed men of the steamer were to be seen They were amused interested But stupid and spoke no language to any purpose but French About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Young Americans Abroad Various,2022-09-16 In Young Americans Abroad a compendium of narratives by various authors the reader is taken on a grand tour of nineteenth century Europe through the eyes of American voyagers This collection stands as an emblem of literary travel writing offering an intricate look not only at the tapestries of European culture and landscapes but also at the transformation of young travelers as they navigate across England France Holland Belgium Prussia and Switzerland The compilation is characterized by its vivid descriptions and reflective prose embedded within the context of a burgeoning American curiosity about the Old World its heritage and its juxtaposition with the New World s identity The works within Young Americans Abroad emerge from an assorted group of authors each imparting unique perspectives influenced by their individual experiences and societal backgrounds These narratives tied together under DigiCat Publishing s curation offer insights into the motivations and cultural perceptions of American travelers of the era They provide a window into the attitudes and aspirations that propelled these adventurers to explore and discover reflecting both the privilege that enabled such travels and the expanding worldview afforded by this privilege Readers with an appreciation for historical travelogues and cultural studies will find Young Americans Abroad a fascinating expedition into the past It is an invaluable resource for enthusiasts of Americana and European history alike offering a composite sketch of a time when travel was as much about personal growth as it was about sightseeing This anthology deserves a spot on the bookshelves of those who cherish the enduring legacy of human exploration and the literary records that capture the spirit of an age YOUNG AMER ABROAD Edward Everett 1822-1909 Hale, Susan 1833-1910 Hale, 2016-08-29 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant Young Americans Abroad, Or, Vacation in Europe John Overton Choules, D. Lothrop & Company, G.T. Day & Co, Rockwell and Churchill, 1851 Letters home to a fellow student from three American boys aged twelve fourteen and sixteen about their travels Freaks of Fortune; or, Half Round the World Oliver Optic, 2016-09-06 Freaks of Fortune is the fourth of the serial stories published in Our Boys and Girls It was written in response to a great number of calls for a sequel to The Starry Flag The author was pleased to learn that Levi Fairfield had made so pleasant an impression upon his young friends and the gratifying reception extended to him in the present story as it appeared in the Magazine was quite as flattering to the writer as to Levi himself When a good boy like the hero of The Starry Flag is regarded with so much kindly interest by our boys and girls it is convincing evidence that they have the capacity to appreciate noble conduct daring deeds and a true life The author is not disposed to apologize for the exciting element as some have been pleased to denominate it of this and others of his stories If goodness and truth have been cast down if vice and sin have been raised up in the story an explanation would not and ought not to atone for the crime The writer degrades no saints he canonizes no villains He believes that his young friends admire and love the youthful heroes of the story because they are good and true because they are noble and self sacrificing and because they are generous and courageous and not merely because they engage in stirring adventures Exciting the youthful mind in the right direction is one thing exciting it in the wrong direction is quite another thing Once more it becomes the writer's pleasant duty to acknowledge the kindness of his young friends as well as of very many parents and guardians who have so often and so freely expressed their approbation of his efforts to please his readers He has been continually cheered by their kind letters and by their constant favor however manifested and he cannot help wondering that one who deserves so little should receive so much William T Adams Noble Deeds of Our Fathers Henry Clay Watson,1888 Down the River Oliver Optic,2018-05-23 Reproduction of the original Down the River by Oliver Optic Amendments to the Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee Voting Act United States. Congress. House. Committee on House Administration. Subcommittee on Elections,1992
