Smith,J. Evetts Haley,2010-07-05 First published in 1953 this photographic record of the real life and work of cowboys remains a perennial favorite Erwin E Smith was the outstanding cowboy photographer of the West and these eighty photographs were among those he chose for an exhibit of his best work at the 1936 Texas Centennial The text by J Evetts Haley a noted historian of the range skillfully complements Smith s visual record of a vanishing way of life

Stewart,2012-10-01 Bannerman is on his way to Florence On the plane he meets Avery who is travelling to see his divorced father and is unwittingly used by his domineering mother Bannerman is drawn into matters and a complex situation develops exacerbated by Avery s mother a dominatrix who uses sex appeal and a natural upper class manner to exert her will A Palace of Art J.I.M. Stewart,2011-12-11 Gloria Montacute is in Venice having inherited a great collection of art treasures Dealers gather and one of them sends a handsome young man to pursue her Jake her cousin and Henry a neighbour also arrive Gloria harbours her suspicions of all The finale however is as much a surprise as we have come to expect from Stewart s novels The Gaudy J.I.M. Stewart,2011-12-11 The first in the acclaimed A Staircase in Surrey quintet opens in Oxford at the eponymous annual dinner laid on by Fellows Patullo finds himself embroiled in the problems faced by a Cabinet Minister and also Mogridge famous for an account of his adventures in South America But it doesn t stop there as Pattullo acquires problems of his own The Glasgow Medical Journal ,1886 Glasgow Medical Journal ,1886 Alaska Highway Kenneth Coates,2011-11-01 Few construction projects of the twentieth century match the building of the Alaska Highway for drama setting and engineering challenge From the authorization for highway construction in February 1942 until the completion of a pioneer road through the harsh northern landscape scarcely eight months passed The struggle of man and machine against the wilderness conducted under the pressure of war captured the imagination of the North American public The annual flood of tourists along the Route of 42 suggests that this sense of drama and fascination is still alive In recognition of the 40th anniversary of this episode in Canadian American cooperation a symposium was held at Fort St John one of several communities that were and still are profoundly affected by the building of the road The papers presented at this interdisciplinary gathering of international scholars of the Canadian and American births illustrate the significance of the highway in such diverse spheres as Canadian American relations British Columbia politics American military history and the evolution of the northern society The first three papers in the book deal with the negotiation and planning phases at the provincial and state levels in the 1920s and 1930s and with the considerations that led American military planners to push the road through as a wartime project Surveying building maintaining and operating the highway are the subjects of the following papers while the next two deal with the postwar administration of the road by Canada The remaining papers discuss the impact of the highway on Canadian United States wartime relations and on the economy and society of the region including its effects on the native population and wildlife resources and on the eclipse of Dawson City as the administrative and economic centre of the Yukon Territory With much new information and insight this book makes an original and important contribution to twentieth century Canadian history It will be of interest not only to historians specializing in northern studies but also to local history buffs who inhabit the region traversed by the highway
