Weymouth Sands John Cowper Powys, 2018-02-27 Drawing on his vivid childhood memories of the seaside town of Weymouth author John Cowper Powys creates a striking collection of human oddities through which he shows his deep sympathy for the variety the eccentricity the essential loneliness of human beings To encounter Powys is to arrive at the very fount of creation Henry Miller

Passions of the Earth in Human Existence, Creativity, and Literature Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2012-12-06 Literature reveals that the hidden strings of the human passional soul are the creative source of the specifically human existence Continuing the inquiry into the elemental passions of the soul and the Human Creative Soul pursued in several previous volumes of this series the present volume focuses on the passions of the earth bringing to light some of the primogenital existential threads of the innermost bonds of the Human Condition and mother earth In Tymieniecka's words the studies purpose to unravel the essential bond between the living human being and the earth a bond that lies at the heart of our existence A heightened awareness of this bond should enlighten our situation and help us find our existential bearings

Mr. Powys's World of Sleep Walkers Ernest Sutherland Bates, 1934 John Cowper Powys and the Afterlife of Romanticism Kim Wheatley, 2025-01-09 This study bridges the chronological divide between the Romantic era and the first six decades of the 20th century interpreting John Cowper Powys 1872-1963 as a major under recognized contributor to the cultural transmission of Romanticism Kim Wheatley's John Cowper Powys and the Afterlife of Romanticism uncovers the surprising extent to which this multi faceted Modernist era author reworked key concerns of the Romantic poets Wheatley shows how Powys's prose rewritings of Romantic poetry contribute to the story of the posthumous life of Romanticism especially its environmental legacy In particular the book expands our understanding of the early 20th century reception of William Wordsworth and John Keats Wheatley argues that Powys anticipates and presciently interrogates recent revisionary critical approaches to the Romantics primarily materialist eco critical approaches and therefore invites a fresh environmentalist criticism open to the transcendental and the supernatural Chapters range across Powys's extensive oeuvre investigating his treatment of Wordsworth and Keats in his works of fiction autobiographical writings popular philosophical books and essays of literary appreciation including his Autobiography 1934 his four major Wessex novels Wolf Solent 1929 A Glastonbury Romance 1932 Weymouth Sands 1934 and Maiden Castle 1936 and his later Welsh historical novels Owen Glendower 1941 and Porius 1951 Wheatley demonstrates how Powys uniquely combines sense based nature worship the leveling of animate and inanimate and care for disabled human beings along with mystical and magical themes into an all encompassing ecological vision more capacious than any imagined by the Romantics themselves Weymouth Sands, 1973 John Cowper Powys in Search of a Landscape C.A. Coates, 1982-06-18 The Reimagining of Place in English Modernism Sam Wiseman, 2015-12-11 Analyses key texts by D H Lawrence John Cowper Powys Mary Butts and Virginia Woolf charting their respective attempts to forge new identities perspectives and literary approaches that reconcile tradition and modernity belonging and exploration the rural and the metropolitan Amorous Life Harald William Fawcner, 2007 AMOROUS LIFE One of the most fascinating explorations of the work of British novelist John Cowper Powys by H W Fawcner one of the foremost commentators of this neglected completely extraordinary author EXTRACT Weymouth Sands is a wonderful novel In a sense it is the foremost work to come from the pen of John Cowper Powys There is a sense of aesthetic consummation saving the novel from the sprawling excessivenesses of some of its chief creative rivals A Glastonbury Romance has the same indomitable energy and even the same type of internal happiness but it does not have an equal sense of measure poise and economy At the same time Weymouth Sands is not a curtailing of Powys s genius in the way that Great Expectations sacrifices Dickens s marvellous capacity for nonsensical digression demonstrated as early as Pickwick Papers The lack of bulk and the loss of enormity do not prevent Weymouth Sands from asserting itself as mass Weymouth is not less solid than Glastonbury The advancing and retreating sea tides are not conceived on a scale that is more limited than the one utilized as canvas for the grand brushstrokes of history in Owen Glendower In becoming John Cowper s most aesthetically perfect work Weymouth Sands has made no sacrifices whatsoever Here that which is most aesthetic is by the same token that which is most Powysian most eccentric For some strange reason the eccentricity of Weymouth Sands is compatible with the principles of traditional aesthetic form something which we can say of few other works from the hand of this artist John Cowper s best fiction and best philosophy is built on the idea indeed reality of deliciousness Deliciousness as such vanishes from the writer s horizon as he progressively slips from the height of his powers into old age In this sliding Powys drifts away not only from the astonishing precision of his material hold on the richness of his own life receptivity but also from the idea of the work of art as a quintessentially Powysian construct In John Cowper Powys s best works the idea of the presence of deliciousness is indistinguishable from the idea of the presence of amorous life By amorous life I basically mean what the narrator means in Weymouth Sands when describes the ideal erotic affectivity of women like Gipsy May Marret and Peg Frampton as a latent passion to offer up their amorous life as mystics offer up their souls In this assertion amorous life and soul are understood as being on a par as somehow being each other s possible substitutes In other words the soul passes imperceptibly into amorous life for a mystic who no longer lives in the ancient world of dogma but in the world as we know it today In a sense in fact amorous life is a refinement of soul Auto Motor Journal Stanley Spooner, 1912 The Sea-coast: (1) Destruction (2) Littoral Drift (3) Protection William Henry Wheeler, 1902 The Royal Magazine, 1904 Publication, 1929 Palaeontographical Society, 1929 A Companion to Thomas Hardy Keith
