Divergent Paths: The Hegelian foundations of Marx's method Norman Levine, 2006-01-01 Divergent Paths is the first in a series of three volumes that explores the historiography of the relationship between Hegel and Marx it sets the terms of the relationship between Marx and Engels and explores the genesis of the theories of Marxism and Engelsism from the late 19th century to the present day Given the vast pool of contemporary post Marxist theoretical work a study like this is sorely needed This is the most thorough exploration of Marx's ideas from Hegel through to the present day and is absolutely essential reading

Legal and Ethical Retributivism Halil Cesur, 2025-07-31 This book explores a foundational philosophical tension in contemporary retributivism revealing ambiguities in its approach to punishment between two conflicting conceptions of restoration legal justice and ethical love Through an analysis of the three parties involved in a crime the victim the offender and the state it argues that neo retributivism has not sufficiently incorporated the ethical face of punishment into its theoretical framework The pull of legal justice is often so strong that the voice of ethical love is silenced neo retributivism is at an impasse To navigate this the book engages with contemporary critical criminal justice scholarship introducing the ideal of loving justice while highlighting an unresolved tension between penal reformism and abolitionism The book will be of interest to academicians and researchers working in the areas of philosophy of punishment criminal law theory criminal justice restorative justice philosophy of law political philosophy and Hegel scholarship
