A Practical Elementary Turkish Grammar Charles James Tarring,1886 A Simple Transliterated Grammar of the Turkish Language,1877 A Lexicon, English and Turkish Sir James William Redhouse,1884 The Verb 'be' and Its Synonyms: Urdu, Turkish, Bengali, Amharic, Indonesian, Telugu, Estonian John W.

M. Verhaar, 1967 The present volume is the fifth of a series of studies analysing the verb to be and its synonyms in a number of languages. It is expected that these studies will provide some of the necessary foundational material for research in logic, the theory of knowledge and ontology and possibly in other philosophical disciplines. The concluding volume of the series will attempt to assess the linguistic and philosophical impact of all the contributions. Except for the concluding volume, the present volume is the last in the series which collects contributions by more than one author. I have availed myself of this opportunity to reprint here with the authors' permission two papers on to be which appeared earlier in Foundations of Language: 'Being and Having in Estonian' by Ilse Lehist and 'Being in Linguistics and Philosophy: a Preliminary Inquiry' by A. C. Graham. These two papers appear at the end of the volume; all other papers appear in the order in which they reached the editor's desk. Two more volumes are to precede the concluding volume: a study of to be in Ancient Greek by Charles H. Kahn and a study of to be in biblical Hebrew and biblical Greek by James Barr.
