to Starboard? Guy G. Lemieux,2011-03-10 At one point after the boom vang broke loose the boom and the sail shifted to a higher position I didnt like the loss of control this caused The boat was swinging from 0 to 20 degrees in jerky motions lifting and heeling The boom vang had been ripped out of its housing I had an idea what to do and told Roxanne what I had in mind At a certain moment with her help holding up the boom vang in a certain way I would let go of the rudder and lunge forward to grab the creature from her hand and plunge its little head into the second available hole a slot just under the boom This she understood but all the while I was under great stress anxious for my daughters life and mine The wind was quite strong and I didnt want the boat to flip over not there away from any available help We were two miles from shore in any direction I checked the waves and wind and then turned the boat into the wind On my signal to Roxanne I lurched forward and grabbed the beastly creature and shakily shoved its head in the hole I then turned the boat back to windward and pulled in on the sheet that pulled the boom back to its correct position Everything was fine again In a plastic bag hanging from the boom near the mast were my cigarettes and a lighter Thats where Roxanne was also handy She passed me a cigarette and my lighter and I lit it and took a big drag Ah The rest of the day went beautifully In the same bag we had a nice light lunch gourmet style a couple of baloney sandwiches and two cans of pop WHICH WAY TO THE BEATS: Stories of Adventure, D.I.Y.
