Tribute to Young Mothers: The Collection Ainesey "Annie" Rodriguez, 2017-03-14

Tribute to Young Mother's Part One was a collection of poetry Poetry that I collected from the ages of 13 to 22 Some amateur and some complex Part one was a summary of the past 10 years of my life basically Part 2 is all new and raw material All Mature and more articulate vocabulary All well thought and concise material Although Part one is special for being part one in general we all get better with time This part shall bring light to all the real struggles I faced All those moments I felt like giving up All those nights I stood up in tears The real struggle that no one hears of I must feed my readers more knowledge and truth so everyone can see the light of how hard it is to be the minority here in America Let us rejoice the trials and tribulations and prove how well we can overcome them

There, Where Nobody Sees Me Saily Fuentes Santos, 2017-03-10 There are things that captivate us fresh grass the chill after a downpour a beam of light where specs of dust dance and play porcelain figurines photographs and the breeze that scatters the tiny pods of a dandelion blowing them higher and higher Even though poetry is sometimes short and may seem rough poetry is always gentle And for poets although they can be lyrical they can also be very sincere In the poem New York of Lorca one can find sincerity the kind described by Alejandra Pizarnik for behind the violins solitude and silence the truth the everlasting semantics of the poem lifts a tree from the ground before the reader In Saily Fuentes poetry one can find the gentleness like those first described It is poetry that although still young are wrapped in the tulle of faith and nostalgia One must surrender himself to her poems and find oneself in the freedom of their rhymes Turn to the discovery of the hope that this new voice subtly presents to us
