J. Rumley, 2018 William Coldstream became one of the significant twentieth century cultural icons who influenced generations of art students Numbered amongst his cycle of distinguished luminaries were W H Auden Stephen Spender Christopher Isherwood Louis MacNeice Benjamin Britten Sir Kenneth Clark Adrian Stokes A J Ayer and Anthony Blunt as well as many artists and establishment figures whose portraits he painted including one Prime Minister However celebrated Coldstream was to become he revealed a somewhat tormented and anxious mind racked with self doubt Was he ever going to be appreciated as an artist will people understand his painting or will he ever gain control of his personal life Coldstream liked to compartmentalize his life and almost certainly none of his artistic friends knew all the facets of his extraordinarily complex secretive and eccentric life less so about his painting Yet this was in contrast to his outwardly lively witty and charming public personality Mass-Observation and Visual Culture Lucy D. Curzon, 2017-07-05 Mass Observation and Visual Culture Depicting Everyday Lives in Britain critically analyses the role that visual culture played in the early development of Mass Observation the innovative British anthropological research group founded in 1937 The group's production and use of painting collage photography and other media illustrates not only the broad scope of Mass Observation's efforts to document everyday life but also more specifically the centrality of visual elements to its efforts at understanding national identity in the 1930s Although much interest has previously focused on Mass Observation's use of written reports and opinion surveys as well as diaries that were kept by hundreds of volunteer observers this book is the first full length study of the group's engagement with visual culture Exploring the paintings of Graham Bell and William Coldstream the photographs of Humphrey Spender the paintings collages and photographs of Julian Trevelyan and Humphrey Spender's photographs and widely recognized Mass Observation film Spare Time among other sources Mass Observation and Visual Culture Depicting Everyday Lives in Britain positions these works as key sources of information with regard to illuminating the complex character of British identity during the Depression era WILLIAM COLDSTREAM., 1976 William Coldstream [Camberwell, 1962]. Lawrence Gowing, 1962 William Coldstream. [Catalogue of an Exhibition. With Reproductions, Including Portraits.]. Sir William Menzies Coldstream, 1962 Student London Georgina Brewis, Sam Blaxland, 2026-02-11 Students have formed a significant part of London's population since the foundation of its first university in 1826 and Student London centres their experiences in the city's history To tell the 200 year story of student life in the capital this book draws on a rich source base that ranges from institutional records to college magazines court reports to secret service files and many hundreds of student memoirs and oral histories It offers a detailed examination of life at the original London University known as University College London since 1836 alongside many other institutions that eventually joined with UCL Student London captures a diverse range of higher education experiences across medical schools teacher training colleges and specialist institutes A sweeping history of an ever changing city the book engages in much greater depth with London's imperial history than earlier studies of higher education It examines students everyday lives fees and funding collegiate cultures social and political engagement physical and mental health recreation sports and leisure In doing so it charts changing student attitudes to class race gender sex and sexuality across two centuries Royal military chapel, Wellington barracks [a description of its reconstruction].
