Thackeray,2014 The Christianity Myth is a little gem of enlightenment that is aimed specifically at those who place intellectual understanding and the search for truth above all else It is arguably the most important book about Christianity that you will ever read and those able to look their own mortality in the eye and not blink should find The Christianity Myth both refreshing and illuminating However those seeking shelter under the Christianity comfort blanket should think twice before reading The Christianity Myth because it will challenge both their faith in Jesus and their belief in his resurrection The Christianity Myth looks objectively at first century Christianity from a bottom up perspective without any pre conceptions and more importantly without any emotional need to preserve the status quo It concludes that Christianity is nothing more than an ancient myth that started 2000 years ago when two otherwise mundane events combined together in Jerusalem These two mundane events catalyzed the start of a chain of events that eventually produced both Christianity and the New Testament but produced them without any input from a god and without any need to believe in the supernatural Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff,Staff Bowker, Ed,2004
