So Many Versions:

What's in a Version? Henry E Neufeld, 2004-11-26 Henry E Neufeld writes about Bible translations from his knowledge as a student of Biblical languages and his experience teaching them to laypeople and discussing them on the internet Many people have questions about translations because they do not understand how translations are produced Much of the material available is either polarizing or is provided to advocate a particular version What's in a Version strives to provide a basis for lay students to understand how translations are made so they can understand the arguments and become confident of the Bible version they choose to use for reading and study The Journey from Texts to Translations Paul D.

Wegner, 2004-08 Traces the history of the Bible from the earliest manuscripts to contemporary translations Documentary Editing Jacob Bricca, ACE, 2017-12-15 Documentary Editing offers clear and detailed strategies for tackling every stage of the documentary editing process from organizing raw footage and building select reels to fine cutting and final export Written by a Sundance award winning documentary editor with a dozen features to his credit and containing examples from over 100 films this book presents a step by step guide for how to turn seemingly shapeless footage into focused scenes and how to craft a structure for a documentary of any length The book contains insights and examples from seven of America's top documentary editors including Geoffrey Richman The Cove Sicko Kate Amend The Keepers Into the Arms of Strangers and Mary Lampson Harlan County U S A and a companion website contains easy to follow video tutorials Written for both practitioners and enthusiasts Documentary Editing offers unique and invaluable insights into the documentary editing process
