Social Conceptions Of Time:

Social Conceptions of Time G. Crow, S. Heath, 2002-08-05 This book is concerned with the significance of time in work and everyday life The contributors are among the foremost authorities in the field and their up to date contributions consider the changing social meanings that time has in work leisure and everyday routines Together they provide a combination of theoretical and empirically based approaches that reveal the social significance of time in all aspects of everyday lives

Rethinking Marketing Douglas Brownlie, 1999-03-23 This is an important text It brings together critical reflections on the discipline s contribution in terms of theory practice and pedagogy and as such is equally as insightful and challenging as some of its recent predecessors eg Brown et al 1996 Brown and Turley 1997 Brown 1998 The book represents a useful point of departure for those setting off on their own critical journeys and thus it should be included on the reading lists of all those carrying out masters or doctoral research in marketing Journal of Marketing Management This book provides a challenging and stimulating coverage of a broad range of key issues in contemporary marketing such as marketing philosophy marketing ethics the mar

Linking Ages Anna Wanka, Tabea Freutel-Funke, Sabine Andresen, Frank Oswald, 2024-11-14 When we ponder about whether it is time to finish a degree start a family or retire we often draw on age to make an assessment When are we too young or too old to do something and what age is the right one Age thereby is a central social category for Western societies more than gender ethnicity or social status age affects our social position networks lifestyles and aspirations By asking what childhood and ageing research can learn from each other this edited volume brings both fields into a fruitful dialogue It touches upon topics like theories and method olog ies space and time health and care technologies and digitalization play work and consumption as well as violence well being and childrens and older peoples rights This volume will appeal to scholars and students interested in childhood studies and ageing studies gerontology located in a range of disciplines from sociology to social work social and cultural anthropology educational sciences human geography architecture urban planning architecture health and disability studies nursing studies political sciences and law Globalization and the Environment Gabriela Kutting, 2004-01-01 Examines how globalization and the environment are connected issues Theoretical Frameworks in Qualitative Research Vincent A. Anfara, Jr., Norma T. Mertz, 2014-10-30 The Second Edition of Theoretical Frameworks in Qualitative Research by Vincent A Anfara Jr and Norma T Mertz brings together some of today s leading qualitative researchers to discuss the frameworks behind their published qualitative studies They share how they found and chose a theoretical framework from what discipline the framework was drawn what the framework posits and how it influenced their study Both novice and experienced qualitative researchers are able to learn first hand from various contributors as they reflect on the process and decisions involved in completing their study The book also provides background for beginning researchers about the nature of theoretical frameworks and their importance in qualitative research about differences in perspective about the role of theoretical frameworks and about how to find and use a theoretical framework Interpretive Archaeology Julian Thomas,2001-01-01 New forms of archaeology are emerging which position the discipline firmly within the social and cultural sciences These approaches have been described as post processual or interpretive archaeology and draw on a range of traditions of enquiry in the humanities from Marxism and critical theory to hermeneutics feminism queer theory phenomenology and post colonial thinking This volume gathers together a series of the canonical statements which have defined an interpretive archaeology Many of these have been unavailable for some while and others are drawn from inaccessible publications In addition a number of key articles are included which are drawn from other disciplines but which have been influential and widely cited within archaeology The collection is put into context by an editorial introduction and thematic notes for each section Works Herbert

Ageing as Future Frieder R. Lang,Stephan Lessenich,Klaus Rothermund,2024-06-10 Contemporary societies are aging but what does that mean Is this something bad And can societies age as a whole By bringing together psychological gerontological and sociological findings this open access book opens up a hitherto unique multifaceted and realistic view of the phenomenon of old age and the process of aging The volume is based on the results of the project Ageing as Future a long term project network 2007 2021 involving a total of more than 30 scientists worldwide The focus of the project was threefold A first issue was concerned with how views on aging influence development in old age secondly the project analyzed determinants and consequences of provision for old age and thirdly it investigated the different ways in which aging is shaped by managing time in old age For more than a decade the authors conducted quantitative and qualitative studies involving large samples from three different continents The results show that one sided views of old age whether negative stereotypes or positive exaggerations do not do justice to the complexity of the experience of aging Based on these results the authors plead for individual and societal acceptance of the social fact of aging and for the right to live an autonomous and dignified life in old age just as in other phases of life Ageing as Future A study by the Volkswagen Foundation presents findings from a unique large international study that are of interest to aging researchers around the world academically socio politically practically and personally Whether old or young the book encourages one to question one s own views of aging When reading this book it becomes obvious that old age is a highly diverse experience depending on a host of societal and individual factors Proceedings of the ... Conceptions of Time and Social Stratification Kyle Swift Levin, 2020 Although time is a topic that humans have discussed at length for ages only recently have sociologists examined time and its relationship to society The goal of this study aims to investigate the relationship between the time schemes of individuals to the macrostructures that perpetuate inequality in everyday life The study employs three theoretical frames to accomplish this phenomenology hegemony and intersectionality The study uses qualitative in depth interviews and found 1 a common sense of productivity permeates everyday life and interactions and 2 racial and gendered expectations and stereotypes complicate hegemonic time schemes This work suggests that more research is needed on how everyday routines can perpetuate inequality and the taken for granted knowledge that social scientists use as their starting point needs to be critically examined Constitutions and By-laws of the Michigan State Bar Association and Proceedings of the First Meeting Michigan State Bar Association, 1914
