Subduing the Cosmos Kenneth L. Vaux, 1970      Review of Religious Research , 1972      Leo Szilard David Grandy, 1996 Best known for his work on the atomic bomb Leo Szilard made important contributions to twentieth century physics biology and information theory He is however an interesting figure apart from his scientific accomplishments In brief he did not merely do science but lived it as well He was a true believer in science and its potential to save the world This intellectual biography of Szilard captures the visionary centerpoint of his passion for science and public activism This work will be of interest to historians of science physicists and biologists Contents The Intellectual Landscape The Thunderclap and Its Antecedents Moving into Nuclear Physics A Time of Heartbreak and Frustration Down the Shaft From Physics to Biology and Political Chivalry Notes Bibliography Index      That They May Live: Theological Reflections on the Quality of Life College Theology Society, George Devine, 1972 Proceedings of the national convention of the College Theology Society held in St Paul Minn Apr 12 14 1971 Includes bibliographical references      The Reformation Review , 1969      Science and Religion in Dialogue Melville Y. Stewart, 2009-12-01 This two volume collection of cutting edge thinking about science and religion shows how scientific and religious practices of inquiry can be viewed as logically compatible complementary and mutually supportive Features submissions by world leading scientists and philosophers Discusses a wide range of hotly debated issues including Big Bang cosmology evolution intelligent design dinosaurs and creation general and special theories of relativity dark energy the Multiverse Hypothesis and Super String Theory Includes articles on stem cell research and Bioethics by William Hurlbut who served on President Bush's Bioethics Committee      Holiness: Divine and Human James M. Arcadi, 2023-08-22 Holiness might seem like a simple concept Yet when one compares the array of objects that are called holy in the Hebrew Scriptures and Christian New Testament there may seem to be no points of similarity between God humans time land temple accoutrements etc However in this book James M Arcadi hypothesizes a unitary account of the definition of holiness What unites holy objects Arcadi argues is divine ownership Holy objects belong to God In application to God this motif has profound implications for how one conceives of God and the God world relation In application to humans this book argues that the ownership theme unfurls new insights on a range of doctrinal loci including the doctrines of the imago Dei justification atonement sanctification and liturgical theology Bringing biblical studies in conversation with contemporary analytic philosophy this book offers an analytic systematic theology of holiness      Medical & Biological Engineering , 1970      International Labour Documentation International Labour Office. Doughty Jr., 2024-08-06 In Supralapsarian Christology and the Progressive Work of Christ Christus Dominus Thomas G Doughty Jr produces a fresh theological narrative presenting the work of Christ progressively Through both biblical and systematic theological lenses Christus Dominus explains how the incarnate Son of

God accomplishes multiple benefits for humanity and the cosmos This model articulates a supralapsarian motivation for the incarnation of divine human co dominion but also accounts for the infralapsarian motivation of atonement for human sin In doing so Christus Dominus demonstrates that supralapsarian Christology is compatible with objective approaches to atonement showing also how penal substitutionary atonement fits within the more holistic motif of Christus Victor This book addresses weaknesses in infralapsarian Christologies which deem the incarnation primarily contingent on the human fall into sin By exploring God s creation intentions and his faithfulness to realize those intentions in the incarnate Christ through eschatological promises Christus Dominus encapsulates the biblical revelation relating the work of Christ to humanity s progressive vocation Then by drawing on the strengths of recent work of Christ frameworks the author systematically arranges an objective atonement model within that progressive work of Christ Christus Dominus thus upholds the unique necessity of the crucifixion within a supralapsarian Christology as the incarnate Christ s work progressively unfolds
