Suddenly Its Evening:

Suddenly It's Evening John Skoyles, 2016 Selected Poems A Selection of Modern Italian Poetry in Translation

Roberta L. Payne, 2004 What was Italian poetry like in the years of extraordinary historical intellectual aesthetic and spiritual change between the 1860s and the Unification of Italy in the 1960s In A Selection of Modern Italian Poetry in Translation Roberta Payne provides a bilingual collection of ninety two poems by thirty five Italian poets including works of classicism and passionate decadentism examples of crepuscularism and poetry by Ungaretti Montale and Quasimodo Payne pays particular attention to poets of the fifties and sixties futurists and female poets She notes that the futurists who have rarely been translated were particularly important as they were truly original attempting to develop new notions of word line sound and phrase Such new notions make translating them particularly challenging She also offers a large sampling from poets of the fifties and sixties many of whom have won the Viareggio Prize Poems by women in this volume reflect diverse schools and directions while maintaining a distinctly female voice Containing the original Italian and the translation side by side this volume offers a wonderful introduction to Italian poetry to scholars and general readers alike Lutyens, Maconchy, Williams and Twentieth-Century British Music

Rhiannon Mathias, 2016-05-13 Elisabeth Lutyens 1906 1983 Elizabeth Maconchy 1907 1994 and Grace Williams 1906 1977 were contemporaries at the Royal College of Music The three composers careers were launched with performances in the Macnaghten Lemare Concerts in the 1930s a time when in Britain as Williams noted a woman composer was considered very odd indeed Even so by the early 1940s all three had made remarkable advances in their work Lutyens had become the first British composer to use 12 note technique in her Chamber Concerto No 1 1939 40 Maconchy had composed four string quartets of outstanding quality and was busy rethinking the genre and Williams had won recognition as a composer with great flair for orchestral writing with her Fantasia on Welsh Nursery Tunes 1940 and Sea Sketches 1944 In the following years Lutyens Maconchy and Williams went on to compose music of striking quality and to attain prominent positions within the British music scene Their respective achievements broke through the sound ceiling challenging many of the traditional assumptions which accompanied music by female composers Rhiannon Mathias traces the development of these three important composers through analysis of selected works The book draws upon previously unexplored material as well as radio and television interviews with the composers themselves and with their contemporaries The musical analysis and contextual material lead to a re evaluation of the composers positions in the context of twentieth century British music history The Moving Body (Le Corps Poétique)
