Suburban Wilderness:

Writing Environments Sidney I. Dobrin, Christopher J. Keller, 2012-02-01 Writing Environments addresses the intersections between writing and nature through interviews with some of America's leading environmental writers. Those interviewed include Rick Bass, Cheryl Glotfelty, Annette Kolodny, Max Oelschlaeger, Simon J. Ortiz, David Quammen, Janisse Ray, Scott Russell Sanders, Edward O. Wilson, and Ann H. Zwinger. From the standpoints of activists, scientists, naturalists, teachers, and highly visible writers, the interviewees consider how different environments have influenced them, how their writing affects environments, and the ways readers experience environments. The interviews are followed by critical responses from writing scholars. This diverse range of voices speaks lucidly and captivantly about topics such as place, writing, teaching, politics, race, and culture, and how these overlap in many complex ways.

Nature, Monstrous Spaces: The Other Frontier, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Interdisciplinary Press in 2013. Monstrous Spaces: The Other Frontier is a collection of essays presented during the First Global Conference of Monstrous Geography held at Manchester College, Oxford. When examining monstrous geographies, we encounter an Other frontier, a space that runs counter to the socially constructed space of culture that at the same time includes overlaps and co-occupies the cultural landscape.

So That Others May Serve Mike McKenna, 2025-02-01 When disaster strikes, whether under the stars of a remote wilderness or amidst the chaos of an urban catastrophe, search and rescue (SAR) responders answer the call not for fame but for purpose. Their mission: do the most good for the most people as swiftly and safely as possible. In So That Others May Serve, veteran SAR professional and instructor Mike McKenna distills more than two decades of field experience into an engaging, insightful guide for responders, leaders, and those driven to serve. Drawing from gripping real-life missions and hard-earned lessons, this book offers a front-row seat to the triumphs, challenges, and raw humanity of SAR operations. Readers will discover the art of effective leadership, why seeing the Big Picture and balancing protocol with compassion matters, team dynamics, and resilience. Insights into the unspoken truths of SAR work include managing ego, mitigating burnout, and fostering trust. Mission success strategies, the distinction between searching and finding, and why reliability is more vital than perfection. The emotional toll of service, navigating trauma, balancing selflessness and overcoming the hero mentality. More than a manual, So That Others May Serve is a heartfelt exploration of service-driven leadership and teamwork. Whether you're a first responder, aspiring leader, or someone seeking inspiration from stories of courage and commitment, this book provides invaluable lessons applicable far beyond the SAR world. In service, we don't choose whose lives we value; we serve them all with compassion, humility, and unwavering focus. This is our mission. This is our honor. Prepare to be moved, informed, and inspired. Take the first step in your journey to serve with clarity, purpose, and resilience.
