The Two Voices Within Nickolas Martin, Linda M. Martin, 2015-12-21 Ego and Spirit both speak profoundly within our lives Can you hear what they are saying to you These two voices are the main energies that rise up and give shape to our thoughts feelings behaviors and physical health As we go about meeting lifes challenges such as change adversity stressors conflicts relationships self esteem achievement and our ability to experience genuine happiness the voice of an unconscious imbalanced ego is unfortunately the one we more often hear and heed leading us into a lesser version of ourselves The Two Voices Within Balancing the Energies of Ego and Spirit to Enhance Your Life invites you to more clearly hear what both of these voices are saying so that you can speak with more of your true voice and recognize the One Voice of the Universe This awakening will enable you to be the best version of yourself and optimally meet lifes challenges The Mirror of Truth and Other Marvellous Histories Eugénie Hamerton, 1875 Humans End Movie Final Chapter Dr. Everett C Borders, 2017-07-11 This is part two and three in the final chapter of Humans End screenplay of the journeys and sagas of the human and social experiments This is a frantic and frenzied rush to attempt to save the human experience driven by maniacal and holistic perspectives and to attempt to reverse the damaging degeneration of the male Y chromosome and male pineal gland maturation decay due to the neutrino tau destruction on the human body This screenplay makes penitent narratives of human health lifestyles future innovations and drama and horror and political possibilities of some solutions coupled with a total finality of the human experience as we know it Journalism and the Philosophy of Truth Jesse Owen Hearn-Branaman, 2016-02-12 This book bridges a gap between discussions about truth human understanding and epistemology in philosophical circles and debates about objectivity bias and truth in journalism It examines four major philosophical theories in easy to understand terms while maintaining a critical insight which is fundamental to the contemporary study of journalism The book aims to move forward the discussion of truth in the news media by dissecting commonly used concepts such as bias objectivity balance fairness in a philosophically grounded way drawing on in depth interviews with journalists to explore how journalists talk about truth Caring for the People of the Clouds Jonathan Yahalom, 2019-04-04 In rural Mexico people often say that Alzheimer s does not exist People do not have Alzheimer s because they don t need to worry said one Oaxacan explaining that locals lack the stresses that people face over there that is in the modern world Alzheimer s and related dementias carry a stigma In contrast to the way elders are revered for remembering local traditions dementia symbolizes how modern families have forgotten the communal values that bring them together In Caring for the People of the Clouds psychologist Jonathan Yahalom provides an emotionally evocative story rich analysis of family caregiving for Oaxacan elders living with dementia Based on his extensive research in a Zapotec community Yahalom presents the conflicted experience of providing care in a setting where illness is steeped in stigma and locals are concerned about social cohesion Traditionally the Zapotec or people of the clouds respected their elders and venerated their ancestors

Dementia reveals the difficulty of upholding those ideals today Yahalom looks at how dementia is understood in a medically pluralist landscape how it is treated in a setting marked by social tension and how caregivers endure challenges among their families and the broader community Yahalom argues that caregiving involves more than just a response to human dependency it is central to regenerating local values and family relationships threatened by broader social change In so doing the author bridges concepts in mental health with theory from medical anthropology Unique in its interdisciplinary approach this book advances theory pertaining to cross cultural psychology and develops anthropological insights about how aging dementia and caregiving disclose the intimacies of family life in Oaxaca
