Urbanization And Labor Markets In Developing Countries:

Urbanisation and Labour Markets in Developing Countries Stuart Sinclair, 2017-10-30 Originally published in 1978 Urbanization and Labour Markets is a useful companion for those studying in geography economics or development studies The book provides a simple guide to the subject of labour in cities in underdeveloped countries It also set out the major controversies relating to urban labour markets in developing countries and focuses in detail to work which goes on outside large scale firms Migration and population growth is considered in some detail and proposals for different ways of seeing the informal sector are discussed This book will be of use to undergraduates in the areas of geography economics and development studies Urbanisation and labour markets in developing countries Stuart W. Sinclair, 1979 Urbanization and Labor Markets in Developing Countries Stuart W. Sinclair, 1978-01-01 Migration And The Labor Market In Developing Countries Richard Sabot, 2019-03-13 This book clarifies the linkages among income distribution migration surplus labor and poverty in developing countries It assesses the implications of different key characteristics of labor markets for the response of labor supply to the hiring of additional urban workers Employment Problems and the Urban Labor Market in Developing Nations Subbiah Kannappan, 1983 Economic analysis of labour market and occupational structures in urban areas of developing countries examines the impact of economic development and urbanization on labour supply and urban unemployment includes a literature survey and evaluation of case studies of labour market segmentation labour force participation and wage structure tackles institutional framework internal migration labour mobility etc ILO mentioned References statistical tables Urbanisation and Labour Markets in Developing Countries Stuart W. Sinclair, 1978 Monograph on urban area unemployment in large cities in developing countries gives a description of urbanization examines reasons for rural migration the reception of urban newcomers and the resulting employment problems and discusses the development of the informal sector and some of its shortcomings ILO mentioned Bibliography after each chapter and statistical tables Urbanization And Urban Policies In Pacific Asia Roland J Fuchs, 2019-09-18 This book is the outcome of the Conference on Population Growth Urbanization and Urban Policies in the Asia Pacific Region held in Honolulu during 8 12 April 1985 It provides wide attention among development planners urban managers and scholars in the field of urban and development planning The Egyptian Labor Market Caroline Krafft, Ragui Assaad, 2022-03-03 The Egyptian economy has faced many challenges in the decade since the 2011 Arab Spring uprisings Not only was job creation anaemic from 2012 to 2018 but new jobs were also of low quality characterized by informality and vulnerability to economic shocks These challenges pushed many in Egypt especially the most vulnerable into a more precarious labor market situation Then in the midst of economic recovery brought on by tough reform measures adopted in 2016 and 2017 the country was hit by the widespread disruption of a global pandemic This book examines the plight of Egypt's most vulnerable groups by focusing on the intersection of gender and economic vulnerability in the labor market With this emphasis on vulnerability and a lens that is sensitive to gender differences and inequities the contributors to this volume use data from the most recent wave of a unique longitudinal survey to illuminate different aspects of Egyptians lives The aspects they explore include labor supply behavior the ability to access good quality and well paying jobs the evolution of wages and wage inequality the school to work transition of youth the decline in public sector employment international and internal migration the situation of rural women access to social protection food security vulnerability to shocks and coping mechanisms health status and access to health care services These analyses are prescient in understanding the axes of vulnerability in Egyptian society that became all too salient during the COVID 19 pandemic

Handbook of Regional and Urban Economics Peter Nijkamp,E.S. Mills,P.C.

Cheshire,1986 Fifteen essays in this handbook are divided into four parts Part I surveys basic spatial and spatially related research Part II surveys literature on specific urban markets Part III is devoted to studies of urban development and problems in developing countries Part IV contains papers on specific urban problems and sectors

Testing for Labor Market Duality Wim P. M. Vijverberg,J. van der Gaag,1990 Research on labor market duality in the context of developing countries has identified the secondary segment of the labor market more with the self employed than with salaried employees A few recent tests derive information on the existence of duality and the relative magnitudes of the primary and secondary sectors entirely from the structure of the wage equation Furthermore as an innovation relevant to the current state of the art this paper estimates an indicator of the degree of formality of the job that a worker holds and integrates this indicator into the structure of the wages The indicator is found to have some effect on the structure of the wage equation which therefore suggests the existence of duality even though duality is measured by the indicator as a continuum rather than as a dichotomous split Analysis of the spread of the indicator reveals a single mode in a distribution that can be viewed as the mixture of two normal distributions Thus the Ivorian labor market is one with a primary and a secondary pole and with substantial overlap between those poles so as to deny the rigorous separation that is common in discussion about labor market duality

Population Growth and Economic Development David Gale Johnson,Ronald Demos Lee,1987

Staff Studies for the World Economic Outlook International Monetary Fund,1986-01-01 This paper reviews recent analytical and empirical research on the determination of employment to provide a framework for evaluating the merits of alternative policies to cope with unemployment Particular emphasis is placed on the mechanisms of employment and wage determination described in recent studies The lack of any systematic relationship between countries long run growth and employment performances reflects the fact that output per person employed labor productivity or conversely the labor intensity of production has developed quite differently across countries The main mechanism through which the rise in real wages has prevented greater employment gains in Europe over the past ten to fifteen years seems to have been a substitution of capital for labor which has lowered the labor intensity of production significantly more than in the United States There are a number of important caveats with respect to the apparent relationship between differences in employment and labor cost developments across countries Rural-urban Relations and Regional Development Fu-chen Lo,1981 The New Palgrave Dictionary of Economics ,2016-05-18 The award winning The New Palgrave Dictionary of Economics 2nd edition is now available as a dynamic online resource Consisting of over 1 900 articles written by leading figures in the field including Nobel prize winners this is the definitive scholarly reference work for a new generation of economists Regularly updated This product is a subscription based product Regional Development Dialogue ,1996 An international journal focusing on third world development problems Proceedings of the World Bank Annual Conference on Development Economics ,1991 Status Influences in Third World Labor Markets James G. Scoville,1991 The Sociology of Development Bryan R. Roberts,Robert G. Cushing,Charles H. Wood,1995 This new authoritative two volume set contains a selection of the most important articles and papers spanning over 30 years on the sociology of development It is divided under 14 succinct headings covering the main areas of the field including Antecedents Modernization Theory Dependency the Global Economy the Urban and the Rural Gender and Ethnicity Environment and Sustainable Development The first volume features a comprehensive collection by authors whose work has shaped academic thought and public policy on the economic development of third world nations Contemporary scholarship on economic development is explored in the second volume which addresses today s major research issues class gender ethnic and race inequality the informal economy population growth migration worker remittances politics and the state planning and development and the state and sustainable development The editors do not limit their selection of articles on the sociology of development to just one country papers are included on Africa Latin America China Mexico as well as more general articles on the developing world The editors have also written an introduction to accompany the piece explaining their selection of articles chosen

Handbook of Population and Family Economics M.R. Rosenzweig,O. Stark,1997-05-23 The collection of chapters in the Handbook of Population and Family Economics and their organization reflect the most recent developments in economics pertaining to population issues and the family The rationale contents and organization of the Handbook evolve from three premises First the family is the main arena in which population outcomes are forged Second there are important interactions and significant causal links across all demographic phenomena Third the study of the size composition and growth of a population can benefit from the application of economic methodology and tools The diversity and depth of the work reviewed and presented in the Handbook conveys both the progress that has been made by economists in understanding the forces shaping population processes including the behavior of families and the many questions empirical and theoretical that still remain For more information on the Handbooks in Economics series please see our home page on <http://www.elsevier.nl/locate/hes>
