

Businesses at Port San Antonio are incentivized by the American Targeted Investment Act. This act gives the advantage of a number of incentives and programs such as tax credits, rebates, regulatory exemptions and assistance in obtaining financing support. The following incentives and programs are available to businesses at Port San Antonio that meet certain qualifications:

For more information, including a detailed profile of each of the incentives and programs outlined below, please contact Michael Johnson, Vice President of Business Development at 2100 180th Street, Manhattan, Kansas 66506.

FINANCING AND GRANTS

Special Grants

As a principal authority on the issue of loans with the state's former All Portwater Pollution Abatement Act program, we are seeking governmental grants, such as those offered by the Federal Economic Adjustment Assistance Loan Program (EALP) and State's Economic Development Administration (EDA) to help promote or improve facilities of the government-private utility (see also Incentives).

Small Business Business Round Loans

City is qualified to help program providing qualifying small businesses with assistance in obtaining working capital loans as administered under its own rules and procedures. Various rules apply regarding interest, maturity, program, working capital and revolving credit with an interest.

Industrial Development Authority (IDA) Round Financing

Round financing arrangements are available for facilities through the City of San Antonio Industrial Development Authority. Other economic development funds can be used for other construction, building improvements and the purchase of machinery and equipment. Contact Michael Johnson for larger projects. Address: 2100 180th Street, Manhattan, Kansas 66506.

State Enterprise Zone Tax Incentive Round Financing

Qualifying businesses can receive tax incentives worth up to $5 million through City round financing. Contact Michael Johnson for more information. City's former round loan program provides round commercial financing.
