Structural hearing, vol.2, by felix salzer Felix Salzer,1952 Theory, Analysis and Meaning in Music Anthony Pople,2006-11-02 There have been far reaching changes in the way music theorists and analysts view the nature of their disciplines Encounters with structuralist and post structuralist critical theory and with linguistics and cognitive sciences have brought the theory and analysis of music into the orbit of important developments in intellectual history This book presents the work of a group of scholars who without seeking to impose an explicit redefinition of either theory or analysis explore the limits of both in this context Essays on the languages of analysis and theory and on practical issues such as decidability ambiguity and metaphor combine with studies of works by Debussy Schoenberg Birtwistle and Boulez together making a major contribution to an important debate in the growth of musicology Listening to the Other Stefan Östersjö,2020-07-10

Our contemporary globalised society demands new forms of listening But what are these new forms In Listening to the Other Stefan stersj challenges conventional understandings of the ways musicians listen He develops a transmodal understanding of listening that is situated in the body a body that is extended by its mediation through musical instruments and other technologies Listening habits can turn these tools and even the body itself into resistant objects or musical Others Supported by extensive multimedia documentation and drawing on examples from the author s own artistic projects spanning electronics intercultural collaboration and ecological sound art this volume enables musicians to learn how to approach musical Others through alternative modes of listening and allows readers to discover artistic methods for intercultural collaboration and ecological sound art practices This book is closely linked to a series of cutting edge artistic works including a triple concerto recorded with the Seattle Symphony and several video works with ecological sound art It represents the analytical outcomes of artistic research projects carried out in Sweden the UK and Belgium between 2009 and 2015
