The Immigration Invasion:

The Immigration Invasion Wayne Lutton, John Tanton, 1994 The Protectionist, 1913 A monthly magazine of political science and industrial progress The American Dream Joseph L. Daleiden, Can each of us achieve our own American dream while recognizing needs of other individuals society and future generations Not if our present national policies continue warns long term planning expert Joseph L Daleiden He persuasively argues that if present socioeconomic trends remain our nation faces social disaster before the middle of the 21st century These trends can be reversed he insists but only if we are willing to 1 reject failed policies both liberal and conservative directed at population growth the environment the national debt trade poverty crime race relations education healthcare social security and tax reform 2 accept that all of these areas of concern are intertwined and 3 take responsibility for our decisions Avoiding ideology and platitudes Daleiden s pragmatic approach relies on actual evidence of how prospective policies will influence human behavior and whether their outcomes will increase or decrease human happiness in the long run Joseph L Daleiden Evanston IL is also the author of The Final Superstition A Critical Evaluation of the Judeo Christian Legacy and The Science of Morality The Individual Community and Future Generations Anchor Babies and the Challenge of Birthright Citizenship Leo R. Chavez, 2017-10-10 Birthright citizenship has a deep and contentious history in the United States one often hard to square in a country that prides itself on being a nation of immigrants Even as the question of citizenship for children of immigrants was seemingly settled by the Fourteenth Amendment vitriolic debate has continued for well over a century especially in relation to U S race relations Most recently a provocative and decidedly more offensive term than birthright citizenship has emerged anchor babies With this book Leo R Chavez explores the question of birthright citizenship and of citizenship in the United States writ broadly as he counters the often hyperbolic claims surrounding these so called anchor babies Chavez considers how the term is used as a political dog whistle how changes in the legal definition of citizenship have affected the children of immigrants over time and ultimately how U S born citizens still experience trauma if they live in families with undocumented immigrants By examining this pejorative term in its political historical and social contexts Chavez calls upon us to exorcise it from public discourse and work toward building a more inclusive nation Syllabus Series University of California (System), 1920

Representing the Other in European Media Discourses Jan Chovanec, Katarzyna Molek-Kozakowska, 2017-11-15 This book deals with the construction of the other in European media at a time when the recently expanded EU is facing new political economic and social challenges The aim of the book is to document the diverse discursive forms of othering ranging from differentiation to discrimination that are directed against various other Europeans in both institutionalized media and such non elite semi public contexts as discussion forums and citizen blogs Drawing on data from British Polish French Czech Italian Hungarian Spanish and Estonian contexts the individual papers investigate how various social groupings regions nations ethnicities communities cultures are discursively constructed as outsiders rather than insiders as them rather than us

While most of the papers are grounded in linguistics and critical discourse studies the book will also appeal to numerous other social scientists interested in the interface between language media and social issues
