John Donne and Baroque Allegory Hugh Grady, 2017-08-10 John Donne has been one of the most controversial poets in the history of English literature his complexity and intellectualism provoking both praise and censure In this major re-assessment of Donne's poetry Hugh Grady argues that his work can be newly appreciated in our own era through Walter Benjamin's theory of baroque allegory Providing close readings of The Anniversaries The Songs and Sonnets and selected other lyrics this study reveals Donne as being immersed in the aesthetic of fragmentation that define both the baroque and the postmodernist aesthetics of today Synthesizing cultural criticism and formalist analysis Grady illuminates Donne afresh as a great poet for our own historical moment

Theory in Social and Cultural Anthropology R. Jon McGee, Richard L. Warms, 2013-08-28 Social and cultural anthropology and archaeology are rich subjects with deep connections in the social and physical sciences Over the past 150 years the subject matter and different theoretical perspectives have expanded so greatly that no single individual can command all of it Consequently both advanced students and professionals may be confronted with theoretical positions and names of theorists with whom they are only partially familiar if they have heard of them at all Students in particular are likely to turn to the web to find quick background information on theorists and theories However most web-based information is inaccurate and or lacks depth Students and professionals need a source to provide a quick overview of a particular theory and theorist with just the basics the who what where how and why if you will In response SAGE Reference plans to publish the two volume Theory in Social and Cultural Anthropology: An Encyclopedia Features Benefits Two volumes containing approximately 335 signed entries provide users with the most authoritative and thorough reference resource available on anthropology theory both in terms of breadth and depth of coverage To ease navigation between and among related entries a Reader's Guide groups entries thematically and each entry is followed by Cross References In the electronic version the Reader's Guide combines with the Cross References and a detailed Index to provide robust search and browse capabilities An appendix with a Chronology of Anthropology Theory allows students to easily chart directions and trends in thought and theory from early times to the present Suggestions for Further Reading at the end of each entry and a Master Bibliography at the end guide readers to sources for more detailed research and discussion

Global Perspectives on Critical Architecture Gevork Hartoonian, 2016-03-03 Judging from the debates taking place in both education and practice it appears that architecture is deeply in crisis New design and production techniques together with the globalization of capital and even skilled labour have reduced architecture to a commodified object its aesthetic qualities tapping into the current pervasive desire for the spectacular These developments have changed the architect's role in the design and production processes of architecture Moreover critical architectural theories including those of Breton Heidegger and Benjamin which explored the concepts of technology modernism labour and capital and how technology informed the cultural along with later theories from the 1960s which focused more on the architect's theorization of his/her own design strategies seem increasingly irrelevant In an age of digital reproduction and commodification these theoretical approaches need to be reassessed Bringing together essays and interviews from leading scholars such as Kenneth Frampton Peggy Deamer Bernard Tschumi Donald Kunze and Marco Biraghi this volume investigates and critically addresses various dimensions of the present crisis of architecture It poses questions such as Is architecture a conservative cultural product servicing a given producer-consumer system Should architecture's affiliative ties with capitalism be subjected to a measure of criticism that can be expanded to the entirety of the cultural realm Is architecture's infusion into the cultural the reason for the visibility of architecture today What room does the city leave for architecture beyond the present delirium of spectacle Should the thematic of various New Left criticisms of capitalism be taken as the premise of architectural criticism Or alternatively putting the notion of criticality aside is it enough to confine criticism to the production of insightful and pleasurable texts

Violence and Emancipation in Colonial Ideology Rohan B. E. Price, 2019-12-01 Are there ethics justifying anti-colonial violence How and why did the violence and visions of nationalist movements become incorporated by colonial and neo-colonial rule Using the insurrection by the Malayan Communist Party 1948-1960 as an example this book argues that resorting to violence sped up the decolonisation of British Malaya by forcing its colonial administration to invent Malay nationalism and pursue ameliorative social policy among the Chinese diaspora community in a manner clearly derived from the Party's platform Yet this was not the same as giving the country economic emancipation from the expectations of neo-colonial rule Violence and Emancipation in Colonial Ideology entertains no warm colonial memories of the cold war years

Confirming Price's reputation as a plain speaking critic of Empire apologia this book asks how colonial ideology was considered to be beneath Europe yet desperately needed by it He faces down nostalgic communities defending an outdated view that might was right in South East Asia and that communism failed to contribute to the world that came to be Using an Althusserian assumption the book begs the question if a late colonial state was subjective then how did it claim a sufficiently objective mantle to rule and how did ideological techniques enable this A major contribution to the literature Prof Kerry Brown Professor of Chinese Studies and Director of the Lau China Institute at King's College London an unparalleled command of both scholarly literature and primary sources Prof Björn Ahl Professor and Chair of Chinese Legal Culture at the University of Cologne

Profiles in Contemporary Social Theory Anthony Elliott, Bryan S Turner, 2001-07-23 This comprehensive book provides an indispensable introduction to the most significant figures in contemporary social theory Grounded strongly in the European tradition the profiles include Michel Foucault Jürgen Habermas Roland Barthes Jean Baudrillard Pierre Bourdieu Zygmunt Bauman Martin Heidegger Frederic Jameson Richard Rorty Nancy Chodorow Anthony Giddens Stuart Hall Luce Irigaray and Donna Haraway In guiding students through the key figures in an accessible and authoritative fashion the book provides detailed accounts of the development of the work of major social theorists and charts the relationship between different traditions of social cultural and political thought

Twentieth-century European Cultural Theorists Paul Hansom, 2001 Presents biographies of the men and women who wrestled with the complex theoretical problems of twentieth century culture Many of the theorists treated in this volume are concerned with the effects of mass culture technology and consumerism

Mittelalterliche Novellistik im europäischen Kontext Mark Chinca, Timo Reuvekamp-Felber, Christopher Young, 2006 In diesem Sammelband trägt ein interdisziplinäres und internationales Team zusammengesetzt aus Germanisten Romanisten Niederlandisten und Anglisten aus Deutschland Großbritannien den Niederlanden und den USA zu einer Neubewertung der Versnovellen bei Die aktuelle Text und Theoriediskussionen aufgreifenden Beiträge sollen Studierenden wie Lehrenden einen schnellen Forschungseinstieg ermöglichen und darüber hinaus neue methodische Zugänge zur mittelalterlichen Novellistik skizzieren

The Ethics of Violence David Glover, Renata Salecl, 1998 This issue examines the concept of violence It argues that ethics are deeply imbued with violence and explores the ambiguous relations between them The argument is that Kantian ethics are based on the violent split Kant makes between the physical which includes the body and spiritual worlds This is why absolute ethical stances for example that of Antigone or of those who renounce their families in the name of a higher cause are often perceived of as inhuman Some contributors then go on to draw parallels between Kantian ethics and those of Sade while others discuss the contextualisation of violence the same act body piercing can be viewed as savage ritual or urban chic

Psycho-Marxism Robert Miklitsch, 1998 This special issue of South Atlantic Quarterly examines the recent theoretical convergence of psychoanalysis and Marxism by posing anew the question of the relationship between these two master discourses in the era of late capitalism Beginning with Zizek's Psychoanalysis in Post Marxism which both dramatizes and analyzes the discursive antinomies of psycho-Marxism this volume comes full circle with Robert Miklitsch's Going through the Fantasy which seeks the traumatic kernel at the core of Zizekian theory In other essays psycho-Marxism is submitted to Foucault's analytics of power knowledge Derrida's spectral letter the postcolonial theory of Homi Bhabha and Gayatri Spivak and the performative politics poetics of Jean Genet The theoretical perspectives of Laura Mulvey and Gayle Rubin are crosscut and spliced to take women out of commodity traffic and put feminist automobility up on the big screen Imperialism Nazi psychoanalytic techno-fetishism and the strange alliance between anti-queer Marxism and gay conservatism provide other useful lenses through which the Marxist psychoanalytic bond is viewed Contributors Elizabeth Jane Bellamy Teresa Brennan Rosaria Champagne Stathis Gourgouris Catherine Liu Kathleen McHugh Robert Miklitsch Abdul Karim Mustapha Laurence A Rickels Eugene Victor Wolfenstein Slavoj Zizek

Time for Baudelaire E. S. Burt, Elissa Marder, Kevin Newmark, 2014 Time for Baudelaire suggests it's time that Yale French Studies devote an issue to the poet who more than any other inaugurated the unfinished epoch of modernity It also urges that we take or make time for thinking about the specific ways in which poetry and perhaps poetry alone allows a historical concept like modernity to become accessible in the first place Finally it asks what time means when it comes to reading the relation between Baudelaire's writings and the moment the event the era and our capacity to experience them together or in isolation from one another
