No Real Choice Katrina Kimport, 2021-10-15 In the United States the right to choose an abortion is the law of the land But what if a woman continues her pregnancy because she didn t really have a choice What if state laws federal policies stigma and a host of other obstacles push that choice out of her reach Based on candid in depth interviews with women who considered but did not obtain an abortion No Real Choice punctures the myth that American women have full autonomy over their reproductive choices Focusing on the experiences of a predominantly Black and low income group of women sociologist Katrina Kimport finds that structural cultural and experiential factors can make choosing abortion impossible especially for those who experience racism and class discrimination From these conversations we see the obstacles to choice these women face such as bans on public insurance coverage of abortion and rampant antiabortion claims that abortion is harmful Kimport s interviews reveal that even as activists fight to preserve Roe v Wade class and racial disparities have already curtailed many women s freedom of choice No Real Choice analyzes both the structural obstacles to abortion and the cultural ideologies that try to persuade women not to choose abortion Told with care and sensitivity No Real Choice gives voice to women whose experiences are often overlooked in debates on abortion illustrating how real reproductive choice is denied for whom and at what cost
