When you are in a room full of strangers, don't you ever wish you knew how to interpret gestures or how to use them effectively to get your message through? People talk not only with spoken language but also with nonverbal cues. The most effective speakers and leaders let their body do a significant part of the talking. They let their subconscious talk to other people by using gestures, postures, facial expressions, eye contact, touch, and other nonverbal signals or actions. Learning how to interpret body language can help you understand people better or let you express your thoughts more clearly.
