Plenty of Time When We Get Home Kayla Williams, 2014-02-07 When SPC Kayla Williams and SGT Brian McGough met at a mountain outpost in Iraq in 2003 only their verbal sparring could have betrayed a hint of attraction Neither could have predicted the sequence of events that would shape their lives Brian on his way back to base after mid tour leave was wounded by a roadside bomb that sent shrapnel through his brain Kayla waited anxiously for news and on returning home sought out Brian The two began a tentative romance and later married but neither anticipated the consequences of Brian s injury on their lives Lacking essential support for returning veterans from the military and the VA Kayla and Brian suffered through posttraumatic stress amplified by his violent mood swings her struggles to reintegrate into a country still oblivious to women veterans and what seemed the callous consumerist indifference of civilian society at large Kayla persevered So did Brian They fought for their marriage drawing on remarkable reservoirs of courage and commitment They confronted their demons head on impatient with phoniness of any sort Inspired by an unwavering ethos of service they continued to stand on common ground Finally they found their own paths to healing and wholeness both as individuals and as a family in dedication to a larger community
