Writing Australian History On-screen Jo Parnell, Julie Anne Taddeo, 2023-02-15 Writing Australian History On screen Television and Film Period Dramas Down Under reveals the depths of Australian history from convict times to the present day The essays in this book are thematically driven and take a rounded historical cultural sociological psychological approach in analyzing the various selected productions In their analyses and interpretations of the topic the contributors interrogate the intricacies in Australian history as represented in Australian filmic period drama taken from an Australian perspective Individually and together as a body of authors they highlight past issues that despite the society s changing attitudes over time still have relevance for the Australia of today In speaking to the subject the contributing writers show a keen awareness that addressing new areas arising from the humanities is key to learning and hence to developing an understanding of the Australian culture the society and sense of the ever unfurling flag of an Australian something that is not yet a national identity

Writing Australian Unsettlement Michael Farrell, 2015-09-16 A bold work of synthetic scholarship Writing Australian Unsettlement argues that the history of Australian literature contains the rough beginnings of a new literacy Michael Farrell reads songs letters and visual poems by Indigenous farmers and stockmen the unpunctuated journals of early settler women drover tree messages and carved clubs and a meta commentary on settlement from Moore River the place escaped from in The Rabbit Proof Fence in order to rethink old forms The book borrows the figure of the assemblage to suggest the active and revisable nature of Australian writing arguing against the settling effects of its prior editors anthropologists and historians Avoiding the advancement of a new canon Farrell offers instead an unsettled space in which to rethink Australian writing
