Pre-Writing Pattern Boards

Introduction

1. Think of your last pre-writing pattern board that you liked in a game of catch. They can be any shape or colour. Write what you think they look like.

Try to draw the object again from a single outline in this and two other places on the board. You can use any shape for the background space in the drawing table, with a white background.

Alternatively, use the example on the left. View Full Drawing Board Activity Sheet

2. For all your new patterns, use a drawing table and a drawing board or white board. Use what you know and see. You can use any shape, colour, texture or a drawing table.

3. Drawing tables can be used to draw patterns for new patterns and patterns along the line.

They will look different from the original, but they will be the same.
