Writing Program Administrator As Researcher Inquiry In Action And Reflection:

The Writing Program Administrator as Researcher Shirley K. Rose, Irwin Weiser, 1999 This collection of essays discusses writing program administrators WPA's research. The essays pose several questions to characterize WPA's research practices: What is WPA research? What characterizes WPA research and the sites of WPA inquiry? and What values guide WPA research? The 14 chapters are divided into 2 parts: Writing Program Administrators Inquiry in Action and Writing Program Administrators Inquiry in Reflection. Part 1 exemplifies WPA research by describing and conceptualizing specific research projects conducted as part of WPA responsibilities and thereby provides a detailed picture of administrative research. Part 2 then draws on the concrete experiences of particular WPA's and particular writing programs raising and reflecting on issues about WPA research in general. Each chapter demonstrates that WPA's inquiry is characterized by a recursive interplay between reflection and action. Some of the many topics addressed in the book include diverse research methodologies for diverse audiences, feminist methods, conflicts between teaching and assessing writing outcomes, assessment research as a teaching tool, the contributions of sociolinguistic profiling, assessing teacher preparation programs, reflective essays, local research and curriculum development, enabling research in the writing program, archives, WPA's as historians, historical work on WPA's, the role of research in writing programs, and postmodern mapping. The Writing Program Administrator's Resource Stuart C. Brown, Theresa Jarnagi Enos, 2005-04-11 This handbook offers wisdom and guidance from experienced college writing program administrators. It is intended for WPA's at all levels of experience. Landmark Essays on Writing Program Administration Kelly Ritter, MELISSA IANETTA, 2024-11-01 Leading with the provocative observation that writing programs administration lacks an established set of texts that provides a baseline of shared knowledge in which to root our ongoing conversations and with which to welcome newcomers, Landmark Essays on Writing Program Administration focuses on WPA identity to propose one such grouping of texts. This Landmark volume is the cornerstone resource for new Writing Program Administrators and graduate students seeking an ever important overview of the literature on Writing Program Administration. Drawing broadly across scholarship in writing programs and writing centers, Ritter and Ianetta work to historicize, theorize, and problematize the ever shifting answers offered to the question: Who or what is a WPA? Historical Studies of Writing Program Administration Barbara L'Eplattenier, Lisa Mastrangelo, 2004 Historical Studies of Writing Program Administration: Individuals, Communities, and the Formation of a Discipline collects essays that shine new light on the early history of writing program administration. Broad in scope, the book illuminates the development of the profession in the narratives of the individuals who helped form the discipline prior to the emergence of the Council of Writing Program Administrators in 1976, including those narratives of Gertrude Buck and Laura J. Wylie, Edwin Hopkins, Regina Crandall, Rose Colby, George Jardine, Clara Stevens, Stith Thompson, and George Wykoff. Drawing from deep archival work, these narratives offer rare glimpses into writing program administration and the development of composition.

as a college requirement In addition to eleven chapters from contributors Historical Studies of Writing Program Administration includes a preface by Edward M White a concluding essay by Jeanne Gunner interviews with Erika Lindemann and Kenneth Bruffee and a detailed introduction by the editors Barbara L Eplattenier and Lisa Mastrangelo Writing Center Research Paula Gillespie,Alice Gillam,Lady Falls Brown,Byron Stay,2001-12 Original essays by writing center researchers directly address current concerns about writing ctr research through detailed accounts of research and use of diversity of research methodologies available to both veteran novice writing ctr professionals The Writing Program Administrator as Theorist Shirley K. Rose, Irwin Weiser,2002 The work of Writing Program Administration however overturns that perception for it demands that theory be integrated within everyday decision making The WPA Outcomes Statement—A Decade Later Nicholas N. Behm, Gregory R. Glau,2014-09-12 The WPA Outcomes Statement A Decade Later examines the ways that the Council of Writing Program Administrators Outcomes Statement for First Year Composition has informed curricula generated programmatic institutional and disciplinary change and affected a disciplinary understanding of best practices in first year composition Exploring Composition Studies Kelly Ritter,Paul Kei Matsuda,2010-05-20 Kelly Ritter and Paul Kei Matsuda have created an essential introduction to the field of composition studies for graduate students and instructors new to the study of writing The book offers a careful exploration of this diverse field focusing specifically on scholarship of writing and composing Within this territory the authors draw the boundaries broadly to include allied sites of research such as professional and technical writing writing across the curriculum programs writing centers and writing program administration Importantly they represent composition as a dynamic eclectic field influenced by factors both within the academy and without The editors and their sixteen seasoned contributors have created a comprehensive and thoughtful exploration of composition studies as it stands in the early twenty first century Given the rapid growth of this field and the evolution of it research and pedagogical agendas over even the last ten years this multi vocal introduction is long overdue

Technologies, and the Shaping of Composition in the Academy Pamela Takayoshi, Patricia Sullivan, 2007 The changing nature of the workforce and the increasing presence of technologies in composition studies promise to affect not only the ways we work but the very shape of the discipline This volume takes on the challenge of thinking about the intersections of work technology and composition studies in ways that are unprecedented These areas interact in numerous and significant ways yet the focus is often on the concepts in isolation from one another Authors in this collection explore technology and labor issues across a range of institutional locations to focus on working as scholars administrators of writing programs writing across the curriculum programs assessment programs teachers workers held accountable to bureaucrats and gendered and raced workers and the future roles compositions will adopt in the university and how technology affects those identities The chapters address the nature of composition labor in a technological society the new geographies of composition variety of identity and agency that are enabled and denied academic labor outside the classroom and academy and how virtuality impacts labor They provide varied perspectives on what issues are of import and alert researchers and teachers that a serious consideration of labor and writing technologies are needed to expand notions of what composition studies can and must be Publisher's description
