Handbook of Research on the Future of Advertising and Brands in the New Entertainment Landscape Miguélez-Juan, Blanca, Bonales-Daimiel, Gema, 2023-01-09 In a globalized world full of noise brands are constantly launching messages through different channels For the last two decades brands marketers and creatives have faced the difficult task of reaching those individuals who do not want to watch or listen to what they are trying to tell them By producing fewer ads or making them louder or more striking more brands and communications professionals are not going to get those people to pay more attention to their messages they will only want to avoid advertising in all media The Handbook of Research on the Future of Advertising and Brands in the New Entertainment Landscape provides a theoretical reflective and empirical perspective on branded content and branded entertainment in relation to audience engagement It reviews different cases about branded content to address the dramatic change that brands and conventional advertising are facing short term Covering topics such as branded content measurement tools digital entertainment culture and government storytelling this major reference work is an excellent resource for marketers advertising agencies brand managers business leaders and managers communications professionals government officials non profit organizations students and educators of higher education academic libraries researchers and academicians

Research Handbook on the Metaverse and Law Larry A. DiMatteo, Michel Cannarsa, 2024-08-06 This Research Handbook analyses the role of law in a universe fractured by new disruptive technologies such as metaverse platforms Contributing authors explore how the law will adapt as new dimensions of the metaverse are introduced to issues such as intellectual property rights e commerce NFTs and cryptocurrencies data privacy contract law as well as human rights consumer law and criminal law The abuse and manipulation of users is studied in several contributions The Routledge Handbook of Identity and Consumption Ayalla Ruvio, Russell Belk, 2025-04-15 Tell me what you eat I'll tell you who you are said Anthelme Brillat Savarin Today You are what you consume is more apt Barbara Krueger's ironic twist of Descartes I shop therefore I am has lost its irony Such phrases have become commonplace descriptions of our identity in the contemporary world In our materialistic world it seems as if there is no debate that our consumption behavior is fused with our self identity shaping it changing it and often challenging it The Routledge Handbook of Identity and Consumption introduces the reader to state of the art research written by the world's leading scholars regarding the interplay between identity and consumption The book addresses the diverse issues regarding the ways identity affects our consumption behaviour and vice versa and in doing so presents a broad perspective on the dynamics of self identity and consumption With chapters discussing the theory research and practical implications of these dynamics including the way they change across our life span and their expression within different social cultural and religious contexts this book will be a valuable reference source for students and academics from a variety of disciplines
