Social Dynamics Economic Learning And Social Evolution Ser:

Social Dynamics Steven N. Durlauf, H. Peyton Young, 2001 This collection of essays presents a variety of approaches to understanding the dynamics of human interaction

Evolutionary Dynamics and Extensive Form Games Ross Cressman, 2003 Evolutionary game theory attempts to predict individual behavior whether of humans or other species when interactions between individuals are modeled as a noncooperative game Most dynamic analyses of evolutionary games are based on their normal forms despite the fact that many interesting games are specified more naturally through their extensive forms Because every extensive form game has a normal form representation some theorists hold that the best way to analyze an extensive form game is simply to ignore the extensive form structure and study the game in its normal form representation This book rejects that suggestion arguing that a game's normal form representation often omits essential information from the perspective of dynamic evolutionary game theory

Moral Sentiments and Material Interests Herbert Gintis, 2005 Moral Sentiments and Material Interests presents an innovative synthesis of research in different disciplines to argue that cooperation stems not from the stereotypical selfish agent acting out of disguised self interest but from the presence of strong reciprocators in a social group Presenting an overview of research in economics anthropology evolutionary and human biology social psychology and sociology the book deals with both the theoretical foundations and the policy implications of this explanation for cooperation Chapter authors in the remaining parts of the book discuss the behavioral ecology of cooperation in humans and nonhuman primates modeling and testing strong reciprocity in economic scenarios and reciprocity and social policy The evidence for strong reciprocity in the book includes experiments using the famous Ultimatum Game in which two players must agree on how to split a certain amount of money or they both get nothing

Analytical Methods for Dynamic Modelers Hazhir Rahmandad, Rogelio Oliva, Nathaniel D. Osgood, 2015-11-13 A user friendly introduction to some of the most useful analytical tools for model building estimation and analysis presenting key methods and examples Simulation modeling is increasingly integrated into research and policy analysis of complex sociotechnical systems in a variety of domains Model based analysis and policy design inform a range of applications in fields from economics to engineering to health care This book offers a hands on introduction to key analytical methods for dynamic modeling Bringing together tools and methodologies from fields as diverse as computational statistics econometrics and operations research in a single text the book can be used for graduate level courses and as a reference for dynamic modelers who want to expand their methodological toolbox The focus is on quantitative techniques for use by dynamic modelers during model construction and analysis and the material presented is accessible to readers with a background in college level calculus and statistics Each chapter describes a key method presenting an introduction that emphasizes the basic intuition behind each method tutorial style examples references to key literature and exercises The chapter authors are all experts in the tools and methods they present The book covers estimation of model parameters using quantitative data understanding

Neopatrimonialism in Africa and Beyond Daniel Bach, Mamoudou Gazibo, 2013-03-01 Neopatrimonialism a system whereby rulers use state resources for personal benefit and to secure the loyalty of clients in the general population is central to any teaching or conceptualisation of contemporary African politics This book is a theoretical and comparative study of neopatrimonialism in Africa and across world regions Although such practices are widespread in other parts of the world the African neopatrimonial state has also become a global prototype of the anti developmental state This volume calls for a reappraisal of the genesis and interpretations of the concepts of patrimonialism and neopatrimonialism Expert contributors consider recent debates in Africa through the study of democracy clientelism the big man syndrome Kenya the rise of godfatherism Nigeria warlordism Liberia and the neopatrimonial state on a day to day basis Niger They discuss patrimonialism and neopatrimonialism from Latin America to Europe Central Asia and Asia Pacific to weave a comparative analysis of the interplay between public policies and private interest Neopatrimonialism in Africa and Beyond is an important and timely volume that will be of interest to students and scholars of international politics African studies sociology and international development

The Incentivised University Seán Mfundza Muller, 2022-01-24 The core thesis of this book is that to understand the implications of incentive structures in modern higher education we require a deeper understanding of associated issues in the philosophy of science Significant public and philanthropic resources are directed towards various forms of research in the hope of addressing key societal problems That view and the associated allocation of resources relies on the assumption that academic research will tend towards finding truth or at least selecting the best approximations of it The present book builds on and extends contributions in philosophy and higher education to argue that this assumption is misplaced with serious implications for modern higher education and its role in informing societal decisions and government policy The book develops a philosophical foundation for the analysis of the connection between higher education incentives scientific progress and societal outcomes That in turn is used to demonstrate how the current approach to incentivising intellectual and scientific progress is likely not only to fail but in fact to cause harm on the very dimensions it purports to improve The arguments presented are illustrated with examples from medicine and academic economics making the book one of the first to examine issues of scientific progress and social consequences across the human and social sciences In doing so it develops a novel critique of modern economics that in turn provides a more philosophically substantive foundation for popular critiques of economics than has existed to date

An Introduction to Game-Theoretic Modelling: Third Edition Mike Mesterton-Gibbons, 2019-07-05 This book introduces game theory and its applications from an applied mathematician's perspective systematically developing tools and concepts for game theoretic modelling in the life and social sciences Filled with down to earth examples of strategic behavior in humans and other animals the book presents a unified account of the central ideas of both classical and evolutionary game theory Unlike many books on game theory which focus on mathematical and recreational aspects of the subject this book emphasizes using games to answer questions of current scientific interest In the present third edition the author has added substantial new material on evolutionarily stable strategies and their use in behavioral ecology The only prerequisites are calculus and some exposure to matrix algebra probability and differential equations

Heterodox Macroeconomics

Jonathan P. Goldstein, Michael G. Hillard, 2009-06-02 This book focuses on an integrated heterodox approach to the original contributions of Keynes Marx and early institutionalists featuring an international set of authors from the US the UK Japan and Korea
