Sechrist, 1913 Journal of Philosophical Studies , 1928 Includes section New books The Modern Language Journal , 1930 Includes section Reviews Surveillance and Identity Dr David Barnard-Wills, 2013-01-28 Surveillance and Identity analyses the discourse of surveillance in the contemporary United Kingdom drawing upon public language from central government governmental agencies activist movements and from finance and banking Examining the logics of these discourses and revealing the manner in which they construct problems of governance in the light of the insecurity of identity this book shows how identity is fundamentally linked to surveillance as governmental discourses privilege surveillance as a response to social problems In drawing links between new technologies and national surveillance projects or concerns surrounding phenomena such as identity fraud Surveillance and Identity presents a new understanding of identity the model of surveillance identity demonstrating that this is often applied to individuals by powerful organisations at the same time as the concept is being actively contested in public language The first comprehensive study of the discursive politics of surveillance in the UK this book makes significant contributions to surveillance theory governmentality theory and to political and social identity theories As such it will be of interest to social scientists of all kinds working on questions of public discourse and political communication identity surveillance and the relationship between the individual and the state Language Monographs ,1930 Archives of Philosophy ... ,1914 The Making of Language Mike Beaken,1996 An introduction to the evolution of language from gestural communication to the development of complex syntax Beaken synthesizes advances in scientific knowledge based on archaeological and fossil evidence primate study and new techniques in historical language analysis and re examines language origins from the point of view of a linguist Countering Pinker s The Language Instinct Beaken refutes claims for an innate biological capacity for language and demonstrates that both the origin and form of language can be explained in terms of human activity He shows how human beings made their own language in the process of collective labour and the social interactions and relations which surround the immediate tasks for the survival of human groups Comparative Literature Posnett,1886 (Un)Gendered Experiences in the Virtual Space Indrani Mukherjee,Subhadra Mitra Channa,2025-09-22 This book critically examines the ever evolving relationship between gender identity and technology investigating how identity is shaped expressed and contested within virtual environments It brings together empirical essays from various geographies including Israel Italy South Africa Spain Brazil and India to explore how gender constructs religiosity social support structures ethical discourses biases and toxicity weave into the digital fabric While the digital space can build community and open up liberating possibilities it also retains echoes of real world social and gender dynamics The absence of the physical body does not shield virtual spaces from deeply entrenched socio cultural and political contexts Through an exploration of different virtual platforms and digital apps like Facebook WhatsApp and Tinder among others the book invites readers to contemplate the boundless possibilities and pressing challenges that arise when gendered experiences converge with the infinite expanse of the virtual space s The chapters in this volume offer great analytical insights into these dynamics supported by well surmised theoretical and methodological backdrops The book will be of interest to practitioners of social sciences especially those interested in issues of gender and identity politics as well as research in the digital or virtual space It will also be a valuable resource for students and researchers of anthropology and sociology International Journal of Ethics ,1898 Modern Language Forum ,1930
