The Struggle for Democracy Christopher Meckstroth,2015 Revolutionaries counter revolutionaries and reformers the world over appeal to democracy to justify their actions But when political factions compete over the right to act in the people s name who is to decide Although the problem is as old as the great revolutions of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries events from the Arab Spring to secession referendums suggest that today it is hardly any closer to being solved This book defends a new theory of democratic legitimacy and change that provides an answer Christopher Meckstroth shows why familiar views that identify democracy with timeless principles or institutions fall into paradox when asked to make sense of democratic founding and change Solving the problem he argues requires shifting focus to the historical conditions under which citizens work out what it will mean to govern themselves in a democratic way The only way of sorting out disputes without faith in progress is to show in Socratic fashion that some parties claims to speak for the people cannot hold up even on their own terms Meckstroth builds his argument on provocative and closely argued interpretations of Plato Kant and Hegel suggesting that familiar views of them as foundationalist metaphysicians misunderstand their debt to a method of radical doubt pioneered by Socrates Recovering this tradition of antifoundational argument requires rethinking the place of German idealism in the history of political thought and opens new directions for contemporary democratic theory The historical and Socratic theory of democracy the book defends makes possible an entirely new way of approaching struggles over contested notions of progress popular sovereignty political judgment and democratic change The Great Art of Government Peter Josephson,2002 Moving beyond previous scholarship he gives us a Locke as much concerned with the effective functioning of government as with the roots of its moral legitimacy BOOK JACKET Studies in Politics and Society ,1992 Michigan School Moderator ,1918 Summer School Number Kansas State College,1920 Politeia ,2006 English and Afrikaans with abstracts in English Notable Australians ,1978 Announcement University of Georgia,1921 Nature and Conduct Richard Stanley Peters,1975 Political Violence Ted Honderich,1976 Library Catalogue: Author catalogue University of London.
