Social Program Administration Bruce L. Gates,1980      Information and Referral in Reference Services Marcia Stucklen Middleton,1988 This book investigates a wide variety of situations and models which fall under the umbrella of information and referral It examines traditional views in public libraries and library systems as well as descriptions of programs in nontraditional settings such as academic libraries A human services perspective is explored and research models are presented      Government Institutions: Effects, Changes and Normative Foundations H. Wagenaar,2000-10-31 Research on government institutions is one of the most exciting intellectual areas in political science and policy studies today Increasingly it is recognized by scholars in these fields that effective and legitimate policies depend on the design and maintenance of complex institutional arrangements This book brings together some of the leading scholars in institutional research in The Netherlands Their work addresses such perennially difficult questions in institutional research such as How do we understand institutional change How do we measure the effects of institutions on societal sectors and public policy How do the normative foundations of government institutions influence their functioning What are the principles of effective and legitimate institutional design Through analysis of well researched examples ranging from the fabled Dutch poldermodel through the transformation of the welfare state through privatizations of the Dutch telecommunications industry to the work of welfare officials these authors demonstrate the interpenetration of normative empirical and design issues in institutional theory The book is intended for scholars and graduate students in political science public policy public administration and law      "Code of Massachusetts regulations, 2003" ,2003 Archival snapshot of entire looseleaf Code of Massachusetts Regulations held by the Social Law Library of Massachusetts as of January 2020      Social Program Implementation Walter Williams,Richard F. Elmore,2014-05-10 Quantitative Studies in Social Relations Social Program Implementation provides information pertinent to implementation problems in social policy areas This book discusses the greatest difficulty in devising better social programs Organized into five parts encompassing 12 chapters this book begins with an overview of implementation problems in federally funded programs This text then focuses on the social agency where the many bureaucratic problems in multilayered structure clearly illustrate crucial implementation issues Other chapters consider the structure and incentive systems of public schools as they relate to the adoption of innovations and to their implementation in the schools This book discusses as well the idea of planned variation from the perspective of a model sponsor The final chapter deals with crucial impediment to improving complex operating programs policy analysis and experimentation in social policy areas This book is a valuable resource for policy planners administrators and analysts Researchers engaged in social policy studies will also find this book useful      "Code of Massachusetts regulations, 2015" ,2015 Archival snapshot of entire looseleaf Code of Massachusetts Regulations held by the Social Law Library of Massachusetts as of January 2020      "Code of Massachusetts regulations, 2008" ,2008 Archival snapshot of entire looseleaf Code of Massachusetts
