Social Stratification in Polynesia Marshall David Sahlins,1958 Social Stratification in Polynesia Marshall David Sahlins,1967 Social Stratification in Polynesia Abraham Irving Melden,1958 Social Stratification in Polynesia Marshall David Sahlins,1958 Social Stratification in Polynesia Marshall Sahlins,1954 American Ethnological Soc. Social Stratification in Polynesia Marshall David Sahlins,1958 Social Stratification in Polynesia Hetty Nooy-Palm,1973 Culture Contact in the Pacific Max Quanchi,Ron W. Adams,1993-03-22 The authors have brought together a collection of works from specialists in Pacific History from across Australia and throughout the Pacific The individual contributions were specifically written to meet the needs of senior history courses in Australia Max Quanchi and Ron Adams are well known educationists who have specialised in the pacific They have extensively travelled and studied in the Pacific and have spent many years teaching history to secondary and tertiary students The result is an authoritative text for all senior History and Australian Studies students who need to understand the Pacific region The Transition to Statehood in the New World Robert R. Kautz,1981 This 1982 collection of eight original anthropological essays provides an exciting synthesis of theory and practice in one of the key issues of contemporary cultural evolutionary thought The contributors ask why complex highly stratified societies emerged at several locations in the New World at the same point in prehistory Focusing primarily on the initial centers of civilization in Mesoamerica and the Andean region they consider the sociopolitical environmental and ideological factors in state formation The essays discuss the prehistoric conditions and processes that simulated the development of the first state level societies in Mesoamerica and Peru and explore the difficulties archaeologists must face in their direct analysis of physical remains In general the contributors recognize a growing need for better archaeological solutions to the question of state origin and for more sensitivity to the problems as well as to the possibilities of ethnographic analogy The Forgotten Centuries Charles M. Hudson,Carmen Chaves Tesser,1994 The Forgotten Centuries draws together seventeen essays in which historians archaeologists and anthropologists attempt for the first time to account for approximately two centuries that are virtually missing from the history of a large portion of the American South Using the chronicles of the Spanish soldiers and adventurers the contributors survey the emergence and character of the chiefdoms of the Southeast In addition they offer new scholarly interpretations of the expeditions of Lucas Vasquez de Ayllon from 1521 to 1526 Panfilo de Narvaez in 1528 and most particularly Hernando de Soto in 1539-43 as well as several expeditions conducted between 1597 and 1628 The essays in this volume address three other connected topics Describing some of the major chiefdoms Apalachee the Oconee Province Cofitachequi and Coosa the essays undertake to lay bare the social principles by which they operated They also explore the major forces of structural change that were to transform the chiefdoms disease and depopulation the Spanish mission system and the English deerskin and slave trades And finally they examine how these forces shaped the history of several subsequent southeastern Indian societies including the Apalachees Powhatans Creeks and Choctaws These societies the so called native societies of the Old South were in fact new ones formed in the crucible fired by the economic expansion of the early modern world

Islands of Inquiry Geoffrey Richard Clark, Sue O'Connor, Bryan Foss Leach, 2008-06-01 Many of the papers in this volume present new and innovative research into the processes of maritime colonisation processes that affect archaeological contexts from islands to continents Others shift focus from process to the archaeology of maritime places from the Bering to the Torres Straits providing highly detailed discussions of how living by and with the sea is woven into all elements of human life from subsistence to trade and to ritual Of equal importance are more abstract discussions of islands as natural places refashioned by human occupation either through the introduction of new organisms or new systems of production and consumption These transformation stories gain further texture and variety through close examinations of some of the more significant consequences of colonisation and migration particularly the creation of new cultural identities A final set of papers explores the ways in which the techniques of archaeological sciences have provided insights into the fauna of the islands and the human history of such places Provided by publisher

Texts and Contexts Doug Munro, Brij V. Lal, 2005-11-30 Texts and Contexts is concerned with the development of Pacific Islands history as a specialization in its own right Specifically this volume examines the foundational texts that pioneered and consolidated the new subdiscipline and served as the building blocks and stepping stone for further developments in the field Thirty five texts all of which represent defining points in the development of Pacific Islands historiography are examined Much more than retrospective appraisals of the foundational texts the individual chapters consider a text or complimentary texts within the context of the time of writing and gauge what ongoing influence they exerted In some cases they suggest how a particular text has been superseded by subsequent work that breaks new conceptual ground in the ongoing process of revisionism Contributors Chris Ballard on Gavin Souter Ivan Brady on Greg Denning I C Campbell on Norma McArthur Bronwen Douglas and Doug Munro on H E Maude and Dorothy Shineberg Michael Goldsmith on Marshall Sahlins David Hanlon on Francis X Hezel K R Howe on Andrew Sharp and David Lewis Brij V Lal on K L Gillion and Peter Corris Hugh Laracy on Niel Gunson and Ta unga Lamont Lindstrom on Peter Worsley and Peter Lawrence Doug Munro on Douglas L Oliver R P Gilson J W Davidson and K R Howe Vincent O Malley on Keith Sinclair and Alan Ward Jon Osorio on Ralph Kuykendall and Gavan Daws Tom Ryan on Bernard Smith Jane Samson on W P Morrell and Deryck Scarr Francis West on Francis West and Gavan Daws Glyndwr Williams on O H K Spate
