In this course, major theoretical and methodological approaches will be studied to address a number of issues, such as: culture, deviance, class, race/ethnicity, gender, sexuality, education, and social change from a sociological perspective. This means that we consider how social forces and structures affect everyday experiences.

- ★ Apply the sociological imagination to examine everyday life and experiences
  - ★ Describe major perspectives and methodologies used in sociological research
  - ★ Analyze cultural norms and expectations and how they vary across social contexts
  - ★ Explain how social inequality (such as by social class, race/ethnicity, and gender) operates within society and impacts people's life chances
