

“Patience, one of the fruits of the Holy Spirit, sustains our hope and strengthens it as a virtue and a way of life. May we learn to pray frequently for the grace of patience, which is both the daughter of hope and at the same time its firm foundation.”

POPE FRANCIS

The Spirit of Hope Jürgen Moltmann, 2020-01-01 Famous theologian Jürgen Moltmann returns here to the theme that he so powerfully addressed in his groundbreaking work Theology of Hope In the twenty first century he tells us hope is challenged by ideologies and global trends that would deny hope and even life itself Terrorist violence social and economic inequality and most especially the looming crisis of climate change all contribute to a cultural moment of profound despair Moltmann reminds us that Christian faith has much to say in response to a despairing world In the eternal yes of the living God we affirm the goodness and ongoing purpose of our fragile humanity Likewise God's love empowers us to love life and resist a culture of death The book's two sections equally promote these affirmations yet in different ways The first section looks at the challenges to hope in our current world most especially the environmental crisis It argues that Christian faith and indeed all the world's religions must orient themselves toward the wholeness of the human family and the physical environment necessary to that wholeness The second section draws on resources from the early church the Reformation and the contemporary theological conversation to undergird efforts to address the deficit of hope he describes in the first section

The Seasons of Hope Ray S. Anderson,2008-02-01 Life contains a rhythm when we see it from beginning to end Our personal existence is not a series of individual episodes taking place as points in time Rather life itself bears us along in a common pilgrimage At any given time we are part of a community where birth and death joy and sorrow pain and pleasure as well as sowing and harvesting are taking place This communal sharing of life replicates all the seasons of life For each time in our lives there is a corresponding season in the life of the human family We empower faith by practicing hope every day of our lives
