The Pentecost Project:

The Pentecost Project Thierry Breton,1987-01-01 The disappearance of an Air France 747 leads to the disclosure of a secret worldwide communications network established by the Vatican to bring together the world's Catholics in a logical continent possessing unparalleled political power America's Prayer Meeting Movement P. Douglas Small,2022-01-11 America's Prayer Meeting movement is designed to call believers and congregations to prayer to resurrect prayer meetings not for personal needs and requests but with a view toward transformational and missional prayer We are encouraging congregations movements to call prayer meetings between Wednesday June 1 Sunday June 5 to pray for national spiritual awakening America's churches need a revival The nation needs an awakening And awakenings in the past have always been associated with prayer passionate prayer earnest and united prayer Imagine thousands of churches opening their doors in the days leading up to Pentecost Sunday calling believers together to pray Hundreds of intercessors from South Korea are making their journey to the United States to join us during this time God is certainly at work We dare not miss our moment

Human Rights in the Emerging Global Order K. Mills,1998-09-14 Mills focuses on one of the most significant parts of the sovereignty debate on human rights and humanitarian issues and raises three interrelated questions First how are empirical processes and practices undermining traditional notions of sovereignty These include actions by the United Nations and other organizations on behalf of human rights such as humanitarian intervention the movements of refugees and others across the borders and increasing calls for communal self determination Second taking into account the above question and examining these issues from a normative political theory perspective what should be the relationship between individuals groups states and the international community with respect to the twin aspects of power and authority inherent in sovereignty Third what new or modified international institutions may be needed in the future to deal with these humanitarian issues

The Albert Einstein Collection Volume Two Albert Einstein,2019-04-30 From revealing personal letters to brilliant essays on the nature of science these three volumes demonstrate the breadth of Einstein's thought The man who became famous for conceiving of the equation $E=mc^2$ kept his mind sharp through stimulating correspondence and applied his intellectual acuity to a number of important scientific issues The second volume of the Albert Einstein Collection offers a fascinating window into how he developed his ideas Essays in Science In these sixteen essays written at the height of his intellectual powers Einstein sets out his views on scientific knowledge its relationship to human experience and the underlying principles of any scientific pursuit He discusses his own work in theoretical physics and its basis in field theory as well as the many achievements of other scientific thinkers including Johannes Kepler Isaac Newton James Clerk Maxwell Max Planck Niels Bohr and others Letters to Solovine This collection of personal letters from Einstein to his longtime friend and translator Maurice Solovine offers a rare glimpse into the evolution of his thought as well as a revealing portrait of the man himself Spanning Einstein's career and ranging from philosophical discussion to personal gossip these letters are presented in English translation alongside the German text with facsimiles of the original letters also included Letters on Wave Mechanics In this stirring collection of correspondence four of the twentieth century s greatest minds H A Lorentz Max Planck Erwin Schr dinger and Albert Einstein discuss debate and refine Schr dinger s then nascent theory of wave mechanics As the physicist Karl Przibram states in his foreword to this edition little needs to be added to the letters they speak for themselves Apart from their essential content they reveal something of the personalities of the four men of genius The Decline of Established Christianity in the Western World Paul Silas Peterson,2017-09-22 While Church attendance in the West is often cited as being in decline it is argued that this applies primarily to the older established forms of Christianity Other expressions of the faith are in fact stable or even growing This volume provides multidisciplinary interpretations of and responses to one of the most complicated and controversial issues regarding the global transformation of Christianity today the decline of established Christianity in the Western world It also addresses the future of Christianity in the West after the decline Drawing upon historical research sociology religious studies philosophy and theology an international panel of contributors provide new theoretical frameworks for understanding this decline and offer creative suggestions for responding to it Established Christianity is conceptualized as historically culturally socially and politically embedded religion with or without official established status This is a dynamic volume that gives fresh perspective on one of the great social changes taking place in the West today As such it will be of great interest to scholars of religious sociology history and anthropology as well as theologians Women in Health Development Trinidad S. Osteria,2011-09-26 This paper is composed in eight chapters The first chapter presents the philosophical foundation of participatory action research involving women as well as the methodological considerations in the multi country research Chapters II and VII deal with each country s experience in initiating and implementing participatory research in health from which specific issues related to replication and generalization of the project are extracted The last chapter consolidates the case studies and readdresses the basic objectives of the study Alive in the Spirit Clive Calver,2006 Clive Calver introduces you to the Holy Spirit in an easy heartfelt style Report on the Deep Sea Fisheries Development Project's Second Visit to the Republic of Vanuatu (12 August 1980-14 June 1981) Tevita Fusimalohi,G.
